

LL.M - PO, PSO, CO
2021-2022
CBCS

PROGRAM OUTCOMES (POS) FOR POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMME

Students who have studied the Masters Degree Programme in Law are expected to have;

PO1: To inculcate analytical abilities in the students.

PO2: To develop critical thinking in the students.

PO3: To develop their ability to find solutions to various problems by application of laws and regulations.

PO4: To develop reasoning ability by application of case laws.

PO5: To study different concepts and legal principles and their incorporation in the contemporary legislations.

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC OUTCOMES (PSOs) OF LL.M GROUP B: CONSTITUTION AND ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

PSO1. Develop the power of critical legal thinking to enable a piercing analysis of laws and judicial decisions

PSO2. Contribute meaningfully towards bringing in social change by appropriately utilizing the law as a tool for the same.

PSO3. Analyse the proposed laws and make meaningful recommendations for their optimal utility to society.

PSO4. Apply the knowledge of Constitutional Law in legal practice before the courts.

PSO5. Become efficient officers of the court by aiding the judiciary in delivering just decisions.

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC OUTCOMES (PSOs) OF LL.M GROUP D: BUSINESS LAW

PSO1: Demonstrate exhaustive understanding of variety of substantive procedural laws including various legislations and connected rules and regulations in the area business law.

PSO2: Learn the art of doing doctrinal and empirical research which covers knowledge and implementation of various tools and techniques of research.

PSO3: Develop organizational skills necessary for successful functioning of law in business practice and demonstrate advanced analysis of statutory provisions and caselaw; sophisticated legal reasoning; and well-developed skills in creative thinking to generate appropriate legal and practical responses to those issues.

PSO4: Explain the key aspects of the body of legal rules that regulate companies and other popular business forms in India, and contemporary developments.

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC OUTCOMES (PSOs) OF LL.M GROUP G: CRIMINAL LAW

PSO01: Demonstrate knowledge of substantive and procedural Criminal Law and other machineries working under Criminal Justice System like, Public Prosecutor, Police, Jail Authorities and relevant provisions of law.

PSO02: Understand the significance and importance of Criminal law in day to day life and application of Criminal law to real life situations.

PSO03: Understand and appreciate the National and International dimensions of various issues and indulge into Research and they will be able to write research papers, policy papers etc.

PSO04: Be sensitized towards the rights of Victims of crime and draw different schemes for compensation and rehabilitation of Victims. Students will identify and apply the Code of Ethics for Professionals while practising and especially in sentencing process.

PSO05: Evaluate the different reasons for success or failure of Criminal Justice System in Indian society and analyse the challenges encountered by various participants in Criminal Justice System like, lawyers, Public prosecutors, Police, Judiciary.

COURSE OUTCOMES

COMPULSORY PAPERS

Semester I

Compulsory Course (Code: CC-01) Law and Social Transformation in India

Students will be able to

- CO1. Understand the role of law as an instrument of social change.
- CO2. Understand the reception of English law in India and also understand the development of Judicial Institutions.
- CO3. Understand the concept of protective discrimination, affirmative action.
- CO4. Understand the constitutional perspectives reflected in the Fundamental duties and know the industrial reforms.
- CO5. Exhibit adeptness in the knowledge of Secularism, gender justice, directive principles of state policy etc.
- CO6. Understand the approaches to law and justice during the Nationalist struggle.

Compulsory Course (Code: CC-02) Indian Constitutional Law: The New Challenges

Students will be able to

- CO1. Understand the historical background of fundamental rights in India and the scope of Art. 12 and 13.
- CO2. Study in detail the equality provisions engrained in the Constitution of India from Art 14 to Art 18 and as well the expanding provisions of the same.
- CO3. Study in depth the scope of Art 19 along with the reasonable restrictions imposed upon it.
- CO4. Understand and analyse the important provisions as given from Art 20 to Art 22 along with its expanding horizons.
- CO5. Study the religious freedoms guaranteed under the Constitution of India along with the concept of Secularism and its significance.
- CO6. Study important concepts like PIL, Compensatory justice and the significant role played by Art.32 of the Constitution of India.
- CO7. Study and analyse the nature of Directive Principles of State Policy and Fundamental Duties and the interrelationship between Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy and Fundamental Duties.
- CO8. Understand the different types of emergencies in India and its impact on Fundamental Rights.

Semester II

Compulsory Course (Code: CC-03) Jurisprudence and Legal Theory

Students will be able to

- CO1. Understand and analyze the philosophical foundations of law and Justice. And the relationship of Law with morality, justice etc, thereby equipping them with the capacity to be able to do a moral assessment of law.
- CO2. Gain knowledge about the historical development of Natural law and understand the Natural Law Theories.

CO3. Understand the concept of Analytical Positivism and its relevance in the Indian Legal System.

CO4. Understand the Sociological Jurisprudence and its relevance.

CO5. Understand the Historical and Anthropological Theories.

CO6. Exhibit adeptness in the knowledge of the concept of Rights, generation of rights. Demonstrate the intellectual capacity and an enhanced acumen to critically analyze the law

CO7. Understand the concept and nature of Judicial process and Theories of adjudication.

CO8. Understand different legal concepts.

CO9. Understand the concept of Feminist Jurisprudence, its origin, different feminist movements.

Compulsory Course (Code: CC-04) Legal Education and Research Methodology I

Course outcome Students will be able to;

CO1. Understand the basic concepts of Legal research, their meaning and characteristics.

CO 2. Understand the nature and types of legal research.

CO 3. Understand the concept of Research design and know the importance of deriving objectives of legal research, developing hypotheses and research problems.

CO 4. Study in detail the concepts like Universe of study, sampling design, sources of data.

CO 5. Understand the process of data collection and identify different research tools used for data collection.

CO 6. Understand the importance of report writing in Legal research as presenting the research findings properly is equally important.

CO 7. Exhibit adeptness in the knowledge of the methods of teaching. They will also understand the objectives of legal education.

SEMSTER III:

COMPULSORY COURSE – CC 05

HUMAN RIGHTS

CO1: Understand the evolution of Human rights and how it is incorporated in various International conventions and domestic legislations.

CO2: Acquaint the students with basic human rights conventions.

CO3: Comprehend the human rights protection system of the United Nations.

CO4: Enhance the critical skills to equip the students with various aspects of Human rights violations.

CO5: Understand the Composition and Functions of National Commission of Human Rights and its role in protecting the human rights in India.

SEMESTER IV

Compulsory Core Course (Code: CC- 06) Judicial Process and Rule of Law

Course outcome Students will be able to

CO1. Understand the pursuit of judiciary in protecting the fundamental rights and constitutional values and the concept of independence and accountability of judiciary.

CO2. Understand and analyse the concept of Judicial Review and various doctrines and concepts associated with it.

CO3. Understand the nature of precedent and appreciate the reasons behind judicial law-making and its criticism of being anti majoritarian.

CO4. Study the development of the concept of Rule of Law along with various laws and its application in the modern context.

COURSE OUTCOMES - ELECTIVES

Semester III

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC - 01)

Law of the Sea

CO1. Understand the Law of the Sea and its evolution.

CO2. Understand the concept of Maritime Zones.

CO3. Understand the concept of Deep Sea-bed Area, evolution of the Legal Regime concerning the Deep Sea-Bed and its Resources.

CO4. Understand the Legal Regime of the High Seas.

CO5. Gain deep insight into the protection and preservation of Marine Environment.

CO6. Gain knowledge about the non-judicial means to settle Disputes.

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC-02)

Law Related To Alternate Dispute Redressal

Students will be able to;

CO1. Demonstrate the various skills and techniques of Alternative Dispute Resolution especially in commercial, business disputes.

CO2. Apply the statutory provisions of the relevant Act regarding arbitration and use case law emphasizing these processes during litigation.

CO3. Comprehend the statutory provisions of the relevant Act regarding conciliation and use case law emphasizing these processes during litigation.

CO4. Skilled not only in litigation but also in problem solving through negotiation, which costs the clients less in terms of time and money

CO5. Reflect the mediation skills in their practice as an alternative to traditional court practice

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC-03)

WOMEN AND CHILD LABOUR

Students will be able to;

CO1. Understand and interpret the provisions of the legal framework related to remuneration.

CO2. Understand the concept of maternity relief and they will be able to interpret the legal framework related to Maternity Benefit.

CO3. Understand and know the benefits to women under different laws in India.

CO4. Understand and interpret the laws relating to protection of children.

CO5. Understand and interpret the Constitutional provisions and laws related to children in India to protect them from trafficking and sexual offences.

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC-04)

International Economic Law

Students will be able to;

CO1. Gain an understanding about the developing countries into the global economy – and the changing dimensions of international economic law

CO2. Understand different aspects of international economic agencies and their role in the development of economic law globally.

CO3. Comprehend the international economic institutions appreciate their role in shaping the economic law.

CO4. Understand the concept of World Trade Organisation, its functions and jurisdiction.

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC -05)

LAW OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Students will be able to;

CO1. Understand the meaning and nature of disability and different models of disability.

CO2. Understand and interpret the provisions of disability law, powers and functions of different committees, rights of persons with disability.

CO3. Gain in depth knowledge about the special provisions for persons with severe disability.

CO4. Gain in depth knowledge about the International Law relating to persons with disability and role of United Nations and its agency in the protection of Human Rights of persons with disability.

CO5. Understand the role of NGOs in advocacy, protection and enforcement of human rights of Persons with Disability.

SEMESTER IV:

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC -06)

Banking Law

Students will be able to;

CO1. Get familiarized with the concept of Indian banking system, origin and evolution of banking.

CO2. Understand the legal provisions to control the banking institutions with special reference to Banking Regulation Act.

CO3. Enhance understanding about the Bankers bank i.e RBI – its legal status and regulating mechanism over other banks.

CO4. Understand the Indian regulations with regard to the recovery of loans.

CO5. Gain knowledge with respect to ancillary services and e- banking.

CO6. Understand the Law relating to Negotiable Instruments, 1881 Act.

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC -07)

Insurance Law

Students will be able to;

CO1. Acquire specialized knowledge of law and practice relating to Insurance.

CO2. Understand the legal principles of law of insurance and settlement of claims.

CO3. Analyze the meaning and significance of the principle of Life insurance

CO4. Understand the legal procedures to be followed for processing a claim and the importance of evaluating and assessing genuine claims with special reference to marine, property and third party insurance.

CO5. Comprehend the new dimensions of insurance law.

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC -08)

CYBER CRIMES

CO1. Understand the meaning, definition, nature of Cyber crimes, historical genesis and evolution of Cyber Crimes.

CO2. Understand the types of Cyber Crimes.

CO3. Acquire deep knowledge about the statutory laws pertaining to Cyber Crimes in India.

CO4. Acquire deep knowledge about Cyber Crime Investigation and basic Investigation Techniques.

CO5. Gain deep knowledge about Cyber Law Prevention measures and Data Safety.

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC -09)
LAW, SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Students will be able to;

- CO1. Understand the development and growth of Science and Technology and its impact on human life.
- CO2. Understand the concept and meaning of Cyber Law, Cyber Space, Cyber Matrix and development of Cyber Law in India.
- CO3. Gain deep insight about the law related to Medical Technology.
- CO4. Acquire deep knowledge about the law related to Nuclear Technology.

ELECTIVE CORE COURSE (ECC -10)
CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

- CO1. Understand the concept of CSR, evolution of CSR and its Principles.
- CO2. Understand the Indian approach to CSR.
- CO3. Roles and responsibilities of corporate.
- CO4. Gain knowledge through comparative study of approaches of CSR in different countries.

COURSE OUTCOMES - OPTIONAL PAPERS

GROUP B: CONSTITUTIONAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

SEMESTER I

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-B 01) Constitutionalism and Pluralism

Course outcome Students will be able to

- CO1. Garner a deeper understanding of the Constitutional values of Pluralism & Constitutionalism and meaning, nature and importance of Constitution as well the concept of justice.
- CO2. Understand and analyse different types of Government and the difference between them.
- CO3. Get a deeper insight in the emergence of the concept of Judicial Review and related doctrines that guide the Judiciary.
- CO4. Study the meaning, nature and concept of Pluralism , types of pluralism and the importance of dissent in a pluralistic society.
- CO5. Understand the role of Judiciary and the Legislature in the light of certain inviolable characteristics of the Constitution.
- CO6. Understand the comprehensive electoral mechanism established under the constitution.

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-B 02) Federalism and Union - State Relations

Course outcome Students will be able to

- CO1. Understand the traditional concept of federalism and the transition to, emergence and adoption of co-operative federalism in the Constitution of India and different types of federalism and its significance.
- CO2. Study the distribution of legislative and administrative powers between the Centre and the states.
- CO3. Understand the power sharing between the different tiers of Government on fiscal plane and restrictions imposed upon it.

CO4. Study in-detail about the tax sharing between the Centre and the States, borrowing power of the Centre and the States.

CO5. Study working of various commissions such as Finance Commissions, Planning Commissions etc.

CO6. Understand the freedom of trade and commerce as guaranteed under the Constitution of India and limitations upon the same.

CO7. Analyse the concept of Co-operative federalism in detail along with the working of various bodies like Inter-State Councils, Zonal Councils, National Integration Council etc.

SEMESTER II

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- B 03) National security and rule of law

Course outcome Students will be able to

CO1. Map the transition from classical concept of national security to the modern concept of national security, understand the concept of Rule of Law and critically analyse the emergency provisions in the Constitution vis-a-vis national security.

CO2. Get an overview of various security legislations in India, Martial Law and the International efforts to combat terrorism globally.

CO3. Understand the interplay between the civil liberties and the emergency provisions with the help of various important articles of the Constitution of India.

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- B04) Administrative Process

Course outcome Students will be able to

CO1. Study In-depth the transition from Laissez Faire to Welfare State and the reasons for the emergence of Administrative Law.

CO2. Understand the concept of Rule of law, its application in modern context and its notion under the Constitution of India.

CO3. Understand and analyse the concept of Separation of Powers, its incorporation in the Constitution of US and India and its application in contemporary era.

CO4. Study the various functions performed by the administration, distinction between the functions and the concept of obliteration of distinction due to Kripak's Decision.

CO5. Understand and analyse the concept of Subordinate Legislation, its necessity, constitutionality, and the controls exercised over it.

CO6. Study the meaning, nature of directions, need for directions and distinction between directions and rules.

CO7. Understand the nature and necessity of discretionary powers and its importance..

SEMESTER III

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- B05) Judicial Control of Administrative Powers

Course outcome Students will be able to

CO1. Understand the necessity of control mechanism over the administrative powers with reference to writs and as well study and analyse various doctrines and concepts related to Supreme Court's and High Court's Power.

CO2. Exhibit a comprehensive understanding of the principles of natural Justice, as cardinal principles of limitation to induce fairness in decision making.

CO3. Understand and analyse the difference between ordinary remedies and remedies under Art. 32 and 226 and as well study various types of remedies.

CO4. Understand the concept of Ouster Clause along with its scope.

CO5. Study the concept of Discretionary Powers and the control exercised by the Judiciary over it.

Semester IV

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- B06) Public Authorities and Liability: Controls On Maladministration

Course outcome Students will be able to

CO1. Understand the concept of liability of Government in Torts and Contract and as well the privileges available to the Government in legal proceedings.

CO2. Appreciate the importance of informed citizenry and an open and transparent government by studying various legislations.

CO3. Understand the role played by the internal control mechanisms like Ombudsman from International perspective.

CO4. Study various bodies like Commission of Inquiry, Vigilance Commission and various controls exercised over it.

CO5. Study the importance, reasons for the growth of administrative adjudication and Nature and Characteristics of CAT and SAT.

CO6. Study and analyse the reasons for the growth of autonomous bodies and various types of control exercised over it.

GROUP D: BUSINESS LAW

SEMESTER I

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-D 01) Corporate Law

Students will be able to

- CO1. Appreciate the principles, theories and models of business enterprises
- CO2. Get familiarized with the concept of incorporation, formation of company and basic documents required for the formation of a company such as MOA, AOA, and prospectus.
- CO3. Understand the concept of share capital, importance of its stakeholders and debenture holders and get a detailed knowledge about corporate debt financing and inter corporate loans and investment.

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- D02) Company and Securities Law

Students will be able to

- CO1. Remember and understand the role and duties of Board of Directors in corporation, Corporate Governance from a managerial as well as legal point of view and apply the concept in understanding majority rule and its exceptions, modes of winding up of company and distribution of assets in the event of winding up
- CO2. understand the role of Auditors in the management of a company and also get the requisite knowledge about the audit committee.
- CO3. get a detailed knowledge about corporate mergers and amalgamations
- CO4. understand the legal framework of civil and criminal liability and winding up of a company
- CO5. Remember and understand FDI, mutual fund and other investment schemes

SEMESTER II

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- D03) Economic Legislation

Students will be able to

- CO1. Appreciate the fundamentals of the Indian Contract Act 1872 as well as understand the meaning, importance of valid and enforceable contracts and the consequences of breach of contract
- CO2. Remember and understand the working knowledge of the legal framework of consumer dispute redressal agencies, their composition, role, powers and functions.
- CO3. Remember and understand the concept of sale of goods act 1930 and critically evaluate conditions and warranties of Sale of Goods Act
- CO4. Understand the legal aspects of Partnership Act

CO5. Comprehend the legal aspects of Negotiable Instruments Act

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- D04) Legal Regulation of Economic Enterprises

Students will be able to

CO1. Understand the different concepts and legal principles, which gives authority to the Government to legislate on economic activities.

CO2. Appreciate the change in the economic policies that was brought about

CO3. Analyse the importance of the statues that are important for the regulation and control of Industrial and trading activities within the country

CO4. Analyse the importance of the statues that are important for the regulation and control of capital and financial activities within the country.

CO5. Understand the composition, powers and functions of four major regulatory authorities within the country.

SEMESTER III

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- D05) International Trade Law – I

Students will be able to

CO1. Comprehend the agreements of WTO and its special organs.

CO2. Understand the history of rules and regulations which governed the international trading world post World War II as well as understand in detail the origin, formation, principles, and structure of WTO.

CO3. Gain an understanding about the various special agreements of WTO.

CO4. Remember and understand the problematic areas of WTO

SEMESTER IV

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC- D06) International Trade Law – II

Students will be able to

CO1. Understand the complexity of International Trade and the efforts taken by various international organisations to bring about harmony in the laws governing International Trade.

CO2. Identify the ways of generating finances for international trade and the methods of payment.

CO3. Gain an understanding about the various special contracts of Unimodal and Multimodal Transport.

CO4. Understand the contracts of the Insurance of exports

CO5. Appreciate the non-judicial dispute settlement mechanism used in resolving international trade related disputes

GROUP G: CRIMINAL LAW

SEMESTER I

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-G 01) Principles of criminal law

Students will be able to;

CO 1. Understand the historical development of criminal jurisprudence

CO 2. Understand the nature and concept of Crime and apply this knowledge to identify the problems in our society and to suggest solutions to different complex issues under criminal law

CO 3. Understand, explain and apply the fundamental Principles of Criminal Jurisprudence

CO 4. Understand the stages in commission of a crime

CO 5. Understand the concept of Group Liability and Criminal Liability

CO 6. Understand the concept of Abetment and Criminal Conspiracy

CO 7. Understand the concept of general exceptions and identify and critically analyse the determining factors to declare a particular act or omission as criminal or non-criminal act.

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-G 02) Penology: Treatment of Offenders

Students will be able to;

CO1. Understand the definition of Penology and trace its development.

CO2. Gain in depth knowledge about different theories of punishment and their relevance in the contemporary society.

CO3. Know about different forms of punishment and sentencing and the viability of death penalty in India and also the alternative punishments.

CO4. Know about different kinds of prisons and the model adopted in India and challenges of successful resettlement of offenders in the community after his punishment in jail and also the challenges faced in Prison administration in India. The students will also demonstrate the ability to think critically and give solutions to the existing challenges in sentencing policy, administration of prison etc.

CO5. Understand the concept of Parole and analyse the Judicial trends for the same in India.

CO6. Understand the concept of Probation and evaluate the contemporary use of the correctional strategies, in theory and practice, in India.

SEMESTER II

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-G 03) Comparative Criminal Procedure

Students will be able to;

CO1. Acquire deeper knowledge about the organization of Courts and prosecuting agencies. They will understand the hierarchy of Criminal Courts, the system of Criminal Prosecution in India.

CO2. Understand the procedure to be followed in Criminal Courts in India and will be in a position to apply this knowledge into practice and also will be in a position to identify and appreciate the challenges faced at procedural level and will be prepared to suggest reforms accordingly.

CO3. Know about the Criminal Justice Models and understand the concept like expert evidence, plea bargaining.

CO4. Gain deep insight into the provisions in the Criminal Procedure Code like provisions of Appeal and Bail & Bonds.

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-G 04) Criminology

Students will be able to;

CO1. Understand the definition, nature, scope and utility of Criminology.

CO 2. Exhibit adeptness in the knowledge of various Schools of Criminology.

CO 3. Understand various factors responsible for causation of crime, criminal behaviour and increasing criminal propensity.

CO 4. Locate, evaluate and effectively use the information on causes of crime, delinquency and various theories for rehabilitation and reformation of criminals.

CO 5. Understand the developing trends in Criminology, the concept of female criminality and pursue higher research in Criminology and thus, can also be a part of Policy making process designed to strengthen the Law and order machinery in India.

SEMESTER III

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-G 05) Criminal Justice System and Human Rights

Students will be able to;

CO1. Understand the concept of Human rights in a comprehensive manner and with a holistic approach and critically assess and analyze the Criminal Justice System in India from human rights perspective.

CO2. Understand and appreciate the role of Criminal Courts in protecting human rights.

CO3. Form an informed opinion about the efficacy of the Legal framework in India in protecting the rights of marginalized and vulnerable groups of the society.

CO4. Identify the contemporary issues in the Criminal Justice System.

CO5. Understand different concepts and principles involved in the Criminal Justice Administration.

CO6. Understand the administration of criminal justice system.

CO7. Identify the key role of various Commissions, NGO's and other Institutions in upholding the Human Rights of an accused.

SEMESTER IV

Optional Core Course (Code: OCC-G 06) Organised Crimes, Terrorism and International Crime: New Challenges

Students will be able to;

CO1. Understand the concept, nature and causes of Organized crimes.

CO2. Understand the classification of Organised crimes.

CO3. Critically evaluate the Legal framework in India dealing with the Organized Crimes.

CO4. Demonstrate ability in comprehending various criminal gangs, their profiles and modus operandi.

CO5. Critically evaluate the Legal framework at the International front for the Transnational Organized Crimes.

CO6. Assess and examine the role of International Criminal Court and identify possible challenges and issues pertaining to the prevention of Organized crimes and International crimes.