As a part of Parent Teacher Association of our college arranging a Parent teacher meeting is a regular feature. As per the tradition of the college and to take the feedback from the parents about their ward's learning through virtual mode, difficulties faced and improvements needed, the virtual Parent Teachers meeting was organised by the PTA of the college on the 20th November 2021. The timing for the meeting for the faculty of Science was in the afternoon at 3:00 PM and the link for this virtual meeting was shared with the parents through the students WhatsApp group.

The meeting began on time and there was an incredible response of the parents for the same. More than 170 parents were present for the meeting and voiced out their opinion on the virtual learning experiences of their wards. The meeting began with sharing of agenda of the meeting with the parents and the teaching faculty by Dr. R. S. Bagde, Co-ordinator of Parent Teacher Association of our college. The Introductory remarks were given by Dr. K.G. Rewatkar, Vice-Principal of the college. Respected Principal madam, Dr. Mrs. B. A. Mehere gave the welcome address and she also expressed her views about the importance of Parent-Teacher interaction in the view of virtual teaching done during the pandemic imposed lockdown period.

Parents expressed their concerns and all the queries were attended and answered by the Vice-Principal of the college, Dr. K.G. Rewatkar. After satisfaction expressed by the parents. Meeting ended with the vote of thanks given by Dr. Mrs. D.M. Borikar, Member of Parent Teacher Association and Associate Professor of our college. The meeting was conducted by Dr. D. N. Begde, member PTA and the curtains were dropped down on the meeting after the consent of all the parents and the Principal of the college.
