CELEBRATION OF GREEN CONSUMER DAY INSTALLATION OF BOTANICAL SOCIETY

Department of Botany & Department of Zoology, Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur have jointly organized Popular Lecture Series on the occasion of 'Green Consumer Day' on 29th September 2021 on virtual platform Zoom.

The Green Consumer Day is celebrated globally on 28th September every year, focuses primarily on awareness raising and the importance of recycling-reusing and reducing waste material. This global celebration highlights the problems of consumerism and its impact on the environment. A green consumer is someone who is very concerned about the environment and, therefore, only purchases products that are environmentally-friendly. Products with little or no packaging, products made from natural ingredients and products that are made without causing pollution are few examples of eco-friendly products. The green consumer, buy products made with recycled materials. Keeping view of this great importance, the two experts have invited for the Popular Lecture Series from the above said alarming fields. The resource persons are Prof. (Dr.) Radhakrishna S.
