SESSION 2021-2022

STUDENT INDUCTION PROGRAMME: “DEEKSHARAMBHA”

8 DAY ACTIVITY REPORT

University Grants Commission (UGC) has initiated an organization of induction Programme with a purpose to help students adapt with the new surroundings, develop bonds with fellow students and teachers, sensitivity towards various issues of social relevance and imbibe human values so as to become responsible citizens.

Ensuring a well-designed induction programme will help both teachers and students for setting the pace of fruitful teaching-learning experiences. DEEKSHARAMBHA is named as the induction program according to these guidelines of UGC issued in 2018. The Purpose of the Student Induction Programme at DACN is to help new students adjust and feel comfortable in the new environment, inculcate in them the ethos and culture of the institution, history of the institution and importance of the place where Dr. B. R. Ambedkar embraced Buddhism along with millions of his followers. Helps them build bonds with other students and faculty members, and expose them to a sense of larger purpose and self-exploration.

Notice:

Report

The Department of Commerce organized an 8 Days Induction Programme- DEEKSHARAMBH. In this series a webinar was organized where the students were given a virtual visit to Deeksha Bhoomi. The speaker for the session was Mrs. Vidya Chourpagar. She was welcomed by Head of the Department Dr. Varsha Panbude. The session was coordinated by Mrs. Shefali Chouksey. The speaker described the history, architecture and significance of Deekshabhoomi through a powerpoint presentation. She explained how Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar had declared in 1935 that although he was born as a Hindu he would not die as one, as conversion was the solution to abandon the caste system. After this declaration, he extensively studied the doctrines of all the major religions to choose Buddhism for himself and his followers. On 14 October 1956, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar and his wife took the oath of Three Jewels and Five Precepts from the Burmese monk Mahasthvir Chandramani from Kushinagar. Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar then also gave the oath of Three Jewels, Five Precepts, and 22 Vows to his thousands of followers during the movement. In this way, Nagpur became the birthplace of the Neo Buddhist movement. She also described in detail how the geographical land of Deekshabhoomi spreads over 22 acres, covered with lush green beautification and the central part is dedicated to the giant stupa. Sheo Dan Mal, a famous architect in Nagpur was handed over the responsibility to design a befitting structure of the stupa. The session was filled with knowledge and enthusiasm of students who were in awe of the auspicious Deekshabhoomi. The speaker gave a beautiful presentation on all aspects of Deekshabhoomi and enlightened the students about its significance. Around 59 students attended the program. At the end, Mrs. Shefali S. Chouksey proposed a vote of thanks.

DAY 8: GUEST LECTURE AND GROUP DISCUSSION ON UNIVERSAL HUMAN VALUES

Notice:

Report

The Department of Commerce organized an 8 Days Induction Program – DEEKSHARAMBH. In this series a webinar was organized for students on a topic Universal Human Values. Dr. M. D. Wankhede, HOD Pali , Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur was invited as guest speaker in the webinar. The webinar started at 10:00 am with the brief introduction of speaker Dr. M. D. Wankhede by Mrs. Shefali Chouksey. A total of 35 students joined the session .The speaker stated the importance of inculcating human values and morality in today's life. The imbibing of moral values starts right itself from a mothers womb and is built upon by family culture over a child's age.Education plays a major role in building a person's moral values which in turn helps in building the nation. He also stated that the moral fibre of a society is built upon customs and traditions followed there . These need to be susceptible to changes and growth , otherwise the society will become rigid and lose flexibility. Time is a constant change and to be flexible is also important. The webinar was coordinated by Mrs. Shefali Chouksey . Dr. D. H. Puttewar was present in the session and encouraged the students to inculcate the moral values described by the speaker. At the end ,Mrs. Shefali S. Chouksey proposed a vote of thanks.
