DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE: COMMERCE STUDY FORUM

REPORT

Guest Lecture

Dated: 4th October, 2019

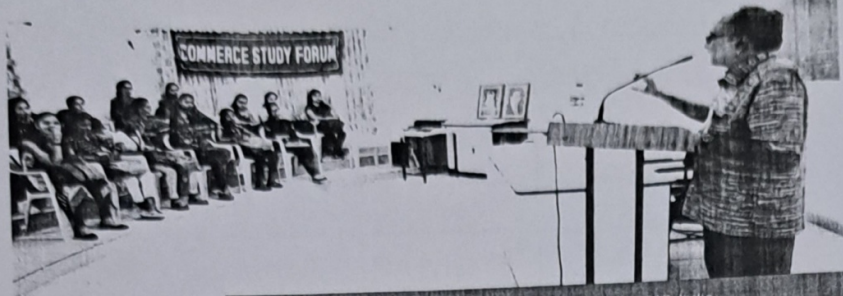

Topic "Overseas (International) Banking"

International or Overseas Banking is primarily based on the domestic banking, commercial bank acts as an agent for overseas banking. Commercial banks are important for the international finance and import-export industry. Commercial banks make possible the reliable transfer of funds and translation of business practices between different countries and different customs all over the world. The global nature of commercial banking also makes possible the distribution of valuable economic and business information among customers and the capital markets of all countries.

Eminent Guest Speaker Dr. Rajesh Iyer, Ex-officer, Zonal Office Branch Manager, Bank of India, Nagpur, introduced the topic by explaining basic banking concepts of a role of commercial bank in international or overseas banking he explained how larger banks may act as affiliates of smaller banks that do not have branch presences in other countries. Through foreign branch banking, multinational companies can consolidate their financial business at a single bank that handles their trade finance, currency transactions, cash management investments and deposit accounts throughout the world. Commercial banks also arrange deals between their customers globally, including strategic partnerships and project fulfillment agreements. He also explained The Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication (SWIFT) in short which provides a network that enables financial institutions worldwide to send and receive information about financial transactions in a secure, standardized and reliable environment.

All students enjoyed and gained the basic knowledge relating international (overseas) banking & SWIFT which will be helpful in there academics and career building. Students attended the guest speaker in large number and were well updated with the current scenario.

The Guest Lecture was chaired by Dr. Mrs. Prathibha M Siriya (H.O.D & Vice-Principal), and all teachers of Department of Commerce were present Dr. Ravi Rao, Dr. Durga Puttewar, Dr. Varsha Panbude, Dr. Sushil Gadekar, Mrs. Vishakha Dongre, Mr. Sankalp Hadke, Mr. Sumit Sen and Mr. Gaurav Munot. All Students in large number and Teachers of Department of Commerce were present positively.
