REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE ON –“LAW & SOCIETY- SOCIOLOGY OF LAW
AND LEGAL PROFESSION” HELD ON 26.10.2020

Department of Law of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur organized Guest Lecture on the Topic – “LAW & SOCIETY- SOCIOLOGY OF LAW AND LEGAL PROFESSION” on 26th October, 2020. The Lecture was organized on online platform through Google meet for the students of LL.B VIII Sem 5 YRS. Total 25 students were present in the guest lecture. Dr. Stalin Rengaswamy was invited as the guest speaker.

Dr. Stalin enlightened the students by explaining them the relationship between society and law. He emphasized that society is existed at every place wherein individuals are residing and having interaction with others. He has explained how the law is a mechanism of social control as propounded by renowned sociologist Dr. Emile Durkheim. He emphasized that the law has dual function, first is in regulating the principals by setting norms and second is general deterrence. He further quotes that it is the society which makes, modifies, alters, and strengths the law as an effective instrument.

Dr. Stalin has further explained that sociology of law is that stream wherein one can study the types and quantum of sanctions, operation of interest, fashion, and instances of prejudices of lawyers, citizens and judges. He stated that in doing this law is acting as a vehicle of social engineering in constructing society.

Dr. Stalin further emphasized on the concept of Restitutive or reformative law and Retributive law as two types of laws specifically meant for the society. He has given an activity to the students by presenting the facts of the virtual situation and asked them to constitute a society and decide the affairs of the virtual society for smooth functioning.

A letter of gratitude has been sent to the speakers after the lecture. The guest lecture was organized, coordinated and conducted by Ms Shilpa Rathod under the guidance & supervision of Dr. H. V. Menon, Head of Department.
