PTM REPORT

A Parent-Teacher meeting was organized by the Department of Law for the parents of III sem (5yrs) and V Sem (5 yrs) course students on the 11th December and 12th December 2020 respectively. The meeting was held on Zoom as the parents could not be called on campus due to the Coronavirus pandemic.

Both these meetings on the two days began at sharp 11:30 am with a welcome address by the Co-ordinator of the PTMs in the Department, Dr Varsha V Deshpande. She welcomed all the parents and briefed them about the purpose behind holding such meetings. She also introduced the parents to all the subject teachers who were also present in the meeting. Thereafter the Head of the Department Dr Hema Menon addressed the parents and informed them about all important issues relating to the students progression. She impressed on the minds of the parents the importance of regular attendance in all classes that are held as per the time table, of posting all assignments on time and of appearing in all tests and examinations with complete preparedness. She emphatically pointed out that the Department follows the practice of continuous evaluation and assessment and hence it was important for students to remain present and meticulously follow all schedules and timelines for submissions. Dr Menon informed the parents about the use of Google Classroom by teachers which has been done in the Department from times even prior to the closedown due to the pandemic. The parents were also given detailed information of the wide variety of activities that had been organized for the students, ranging from brain storming sessions on immunity building and diet during Covid 19, to academic lectures by scholars from Oxford and by High Court judges and lawyers, as well as competitions like quiz on Human rights day, Judgment analysis competition, Legal aid programmes etc. The parents were also informed about the mentoring activities that are conducted in the Department for the benefit of the students. Also, the teachers urged the parents to check out the Google Classroom stream to be updated about the List of students with poor attendance.

After this introduction about the activities of the Department, the forum was left open for parents to interact with the teachers. The parents actively discussed various issues and concerns that they had about their children's academic performance. After this interactive session, the Co-ordinator proposed a vote of thanks which marked the conclusion of the hour long meetings.
