The Department of Law, Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur observed the 63rd Mahaparinirvana Diwas on 6th December, 2019. As a convention, the programme started with paying floral tribute to the portraits of Lord Gautam Buddha and Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar and by lighting the candle.

Dr. N.M. Khirale, Associate Professor and Head of the Department while addressing the gathering highlighted the various life events of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar. He also shared his views regarding Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's contribution to the making of the Constitution of India and the efforts taken by Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar in liberating the Indian society from the shackles of inequality and discrimination. He appealed the Law students to take inspiration from a multifaceted personality like Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar and adopt a research oriented approach while taking education. He also threw light on the contribution of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar in the enactment of Maternity Benefit Act and also the endeavor made by him for providing equal share to women in property, payment of Minimum wages to workers and other social security laws.

The programme was attended by the teaching faculties namely Mrs. Vaishali Sukhdeve, Ms Shilpa Rathod, & Ms Jayshree Pantawane, non-teaching staff and the students of the Department of Law.

The programme was conducted by faculty member Dr. Ms. Pratima Lokhande and vote of thanks was proposed by another faculty member Ms. Shazia Bari.

Dr. N.M. Khirale, Head of Department along with teaching faculty and students.
