Dr. Shailesh Bahadure
Head, Deptt of English

Under the banner of Better English Association, a unique programme was organized by the Department of English on 15 October 2022.

Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam is very well known across the globe as Satellite Man of India and in order to commemorate his Birth Anniversary, an informative lecture on his life and career as well as contribution to the nation's satellite programme was organized.

15 October is celebrated in India as Students' Day.

The lecture was delivered by Dr. Shailesh Bahadure, Head, Department of English.

As Dr. Kalam is also an iconic personality for the youths in the nation, students presented posters of Kalam's famous quotes and explained them to fellow students.

Some other students read his biographical sketch and shared interesting information to others. Discussion on India's satellite programme, ISRO was also held jointly and students were asked a few questions of general knowledge to which they answered promptly.

Students were also informed about Dr. Kalam's books such as 'Wings of Fire' which are available in the college central library and they were motivated to read the books by him.

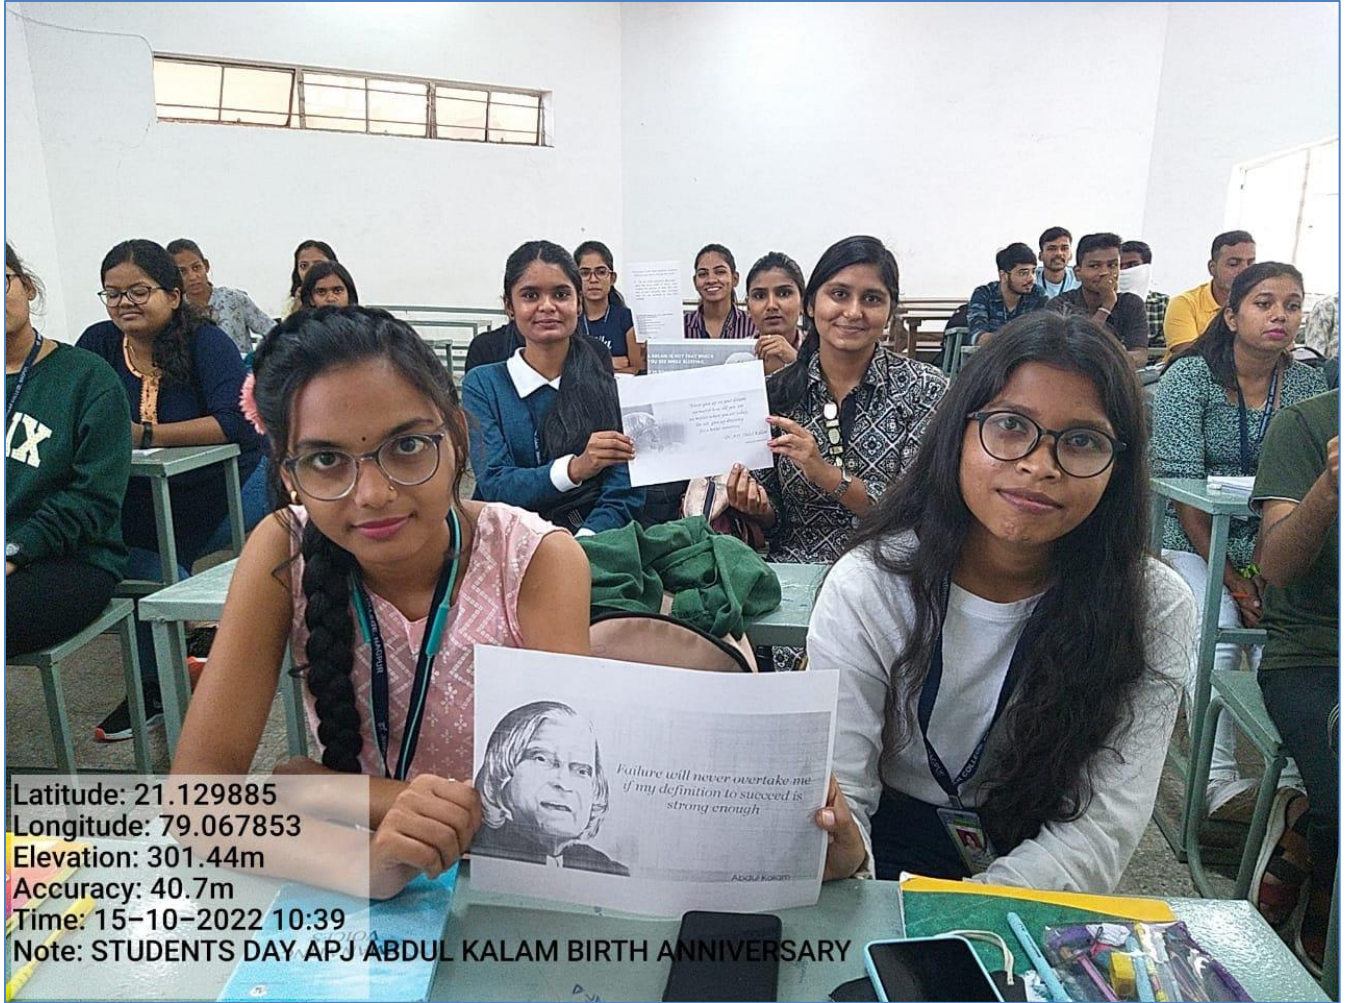

Students were also shown videos and shared links.
