Interaction with Past Meritorious Students. (1st October, 2019)

Department of Statistics, Dr Ambedkar College, Nagpur has organised a Guest Lecture of ex-student Ms Asha Kayarwar on 1st October 2019. She is currently working in the Department of Community Medicine, MGIMS, Sevagram. The programme began with a formal welcome speech by Abhilash Dhakne and presenting of a floral bouquet by HoD Anjali Badar. A brief introduction about the guest was delivered by Ms Amrita Bhattacharya, B. Sc. II student.

The speaker introduced students to the vast usage of Statistics in almost every field including sports, medicine, economics etc. She also elaborated her research paper on Rio Olympics and Indian Rural Pregnancy Cohort Study. Her knowledge of the use of various softwares like R studio, EPI info, SPSS, Python, Minitab, SQL etc enthralled the gathering. She pointed out the large opportunities available for students as statisticians and data scientists. She shared information about guidance classes for data scientists available at Pune, Delhi and the best classes for Indian Statistical Services at Jaipur, Software courses at Hyderabad. She gave information to students about books to be referred for NET and SET examinations. The doubts of the students were gladly cleared by the guest. The program is attended by 64 students. The programme ended with a formal vote of thanks by N Chandrika.
