REPORT:

The women's Development Cell of Dr. Ambedkar College organized an extremely relevant guest lecture on the topic, "Women Empowerment and Gender Justice", on the occasion of International Women's Day, on 8th March 2021. The aim and purpose of the lecture was to create awareness as well as to sensitize the students of all genders of the institution about the concept of gender justice. I/c Principal, KES' Shri Jayantilal H Patel Law College, MUMBAI, Dr. Shweta Wadhvani was the guest speaker who held the audience spell bound by her elaborative and informative presentation and lecture on Gender justice. Highlighting the importance of gender justice in today's world she started her lecture with a question to the students as, Who is a woman? She started her lecture on a very sensitive note that woman is a human being. She emphatically addressed the issues surrounding gender justice by citing different examples. She talked about the recent judgment by Justice Ganediwala on sexual abuse and emphasized as to avoid these kind of incidences into society one need to be oriented towards the concept of gender justice.

The outcome of the lecture is that awareness has been created and knowledge dispensed amongst the students and teaching and non-teaching staff of the college about the importance of gender justice and women empowerment and steps to be taken to practice gender justice in the society.

Earlier Principal of the college, Dr. B A. Mehre welcomed the guest and gave introductory remarks by informing that why 8th March is been celebrated as International Women's Day. She also talked about the theme of this year's celebration of International Women's Day. The programme was ably conducted by Mrs. Vaishali Sukhdeve, faculty, department of law and Coordinator of the Women's Development Cell Dr. Sandhya Kalamdhad ably conducted question hour session and also proposed vote of thanks. Three hundred students from all faculties attended the lecture.
