

DR. AMBEDKAR COLLEGE, DEEKSHABHOOMI, NAGPUR

SOCIAL OUTREACH ACTIVITY DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC

DISTRIBUTION OF SANITIZER AND SURGICAL GLOVES & SPORTS MATERIAL TO COVID FIGHTERS

SATURDAY, 02 MAY 2020

As a joint activity by Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur and Dr. Ambedkar College Sport Academy, sanitiser, gloves and sports material was distributed at different places. Beginning with the nearest one, Bajaj Nagar Police station was given sanitiser to all the staff and some kept in reserve. In addition to this, complete premises of the police station (including inner office area and chambers) were sprayed with disinfectant to ensure safety of the staff. Shri. Raghavendra Kshirsagar, PI, Bajaj Nagar police station and other staff members received the material and thanked the college staff. Taking into consideration the need of physical fitness as a matter of priority also, on behalf of the Sports Academy, Badminton rackets and shuttle cocks were also given to the police personnel. The staff felt happy over this exceptional gift in this critical time as even a little interval of time could be engaged with sports activity indoor that helps freshening mind and physical fitness.

Sanitiser and hand-gloves were also given as a safety measure to the office of the Commission of Police. Shri. Ravindra Kadam, Joint CP and Staff received the donation and expressed thanks over the initiative taken by the college. Shri Kadam said that educational institutions have been a great help in fighting the Covid -19 pandemic where NCC cadets have contributed a lot of their time and strength and DACN has a special place into it.

The forefront warriors are from the health areas and knowing the fact that they should be protected first to protect others, DACN later on donated surgical gloves and sanitisers to the health workers in Super Specialty Hospital, Nagpur. The staff mentioned a very humble note of thanks for having thought of such a nice activity as it was unique from any educational institution. The material was received by Shri Simon Madewar, Modraj Nandeshwar and Mrs. Kumunanda Waghmare on behalf of Maharashtra Rajya Paricharika Sanghatana, Nagpur.

At the end, sanitisers were distributed to the police personnel on duty at the Variety Square. They also thanked the organisers.

The entire distribution on behalf of the college was made by Dr. Arvind Joshi (Vice-Principal), Dr. Mrs. Hema Menon (IQAC Coordinator), Dr. Shailesh Bahadure (Head, Deptt.of English), Shri Umesh Patil and Shri Hemant Pande & Shri Prashant Bambal (DACSA Members). The activity was organized and supported by Hon. Bhadant Arya Nagarjun Shurei Sasai (President, Param Poojya Dr. Baasaheb Ambedkar Smarak Samiti, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur), Shri.N. R. Sute, Dr. Sudhir Fulzele, Shri Vilasji Gajghate (Members of Smarak Samiti) and Shri. R. V. Patil (Principal-Officiating).

Dr Ambedkar College distributes sanitiser, gloves, sports kit to COVID-19 fighters

■ Staff Reporter

AS A joint activity by Dr Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur and Dr Ambedkar College Sport Academy, sanitiser, gloves and sports material was distributed at different places. Beginning with the nearest one, Bajaj Nagar Police Station was given sanitizer to all the staff and some kept in reserve.

In addition to this, complete premises of the police station (including inner office area and chambers) were sprayed with disinfectant to ensure safety of the staff. Raghavendra Kshirsagar, PI, Bajaj Nagar Police Station and other staff members received the material and thanked the college staff. Taking into consideration the need of physical fitness as a matter of priority also, on behalf of the Sports Academy, badminton rackets and shuttle cocks were also given to the police personnel. The staff felt happy over this exceptional gift in this critical time as, even a little interval of time could be engaged with sports activity indoor that helps freshening mind and physical fitness. Sanitizer and hand-gloves were also given as a safety measure to the office of the Commissioner of Police. Ravindra Kadam, Joint

Dr A P Joshi, Dr Shailesh Bahadure and others distributing sanitizer and surgical gloves.

Commissioner of Police and staff received the donation and expressed thanks over the initiative taken by college.

The forefront warriors are from the health areas and knowing the fact that they should be protected first to protect others, DACN later on donated surgical gloves and sanitisers to the health workers in Super Specialty Hospital. The staff mentioned a very humble note of thanks for having thought of such a nice activity as it was unique from any educational institution. The material was received by Simon Madewar, Modraj Nandeshwar and Kumunanda Waghmare on behalf of Maharashtra Rajya Paricharika Sanghatana.

The entire distribution was made by Dr Arvind Joshi (Vice-Principal), Dr Hema Menon (IQAC Coordinator), Dr Shailesh Bahadure (Head, Department of English), Umesh Patil and Hemant Pande and Prashant Bambal (DACSA members). The activity was organised and supported by Bhadant Arya Nagarjun Suerei Sasai (President, Param Poojya Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar Smarak Samiti, Deekshabhoomi), N R Sute, Dr Sudhir Fulzele, Vilas Gajghate (Members of Smarak Samiti) and R V Patil (Principal-Officiating).