Report
on
Psychological Assessment and counselling of people regarding COVID-19 related issues and Distribution of Recreational Material to less privileged children

Every year Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur conducts various social activities as a part of its social responsibility under the aegis of Social Outreach Cell. In the session 2020-21 on dated 27th November 2020 the Social Outreach Cell organized a Psychological Assessment and counselling of people regarding COVID-19 related issues and Distribution of Recreational Material to less privileged children in Kachipura area, Nagpur in collaboration with Psycho-Social counselling cell.

As a part of this activity we distributed recreational material like drawing book sketch pens to enhance their drawing skill and to engage them in this pandemic situation. We also distributed sanitizers and counselled them with their parents to create awareness about the safety and precautionary measures of COVID 19. For the smooth conduction of this activity Vardaan Indian Association of Adoption and Child welfare, Vidharbha Chapter(NGO) play an important role to search the primary students and their addresses in Kachipura area(Nagpur). Total 60 students and their family members were benefited through this activity.

All the members of Social Outreach Cell and Psycho-Social counselling cell (7) were involved in the successful conduction of this activity.
