The Foundation Day of National Service Scheme (NSS) was celebrated with great fanfare and elaboration of the core objectives of the scheme. As the foundation of NSS completed its 50 glorious years in 2019, there was vehement response from all the volunteers for organization of the programme. Mr. Narendra Bhusari, motivational speaker was invited to have interaction with the students on this occasion. The programme was presided over by Shri Vilasji Gajghate, Member of P. P. Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Smarak Samiti, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur. Prof. R. V. Patil (Principal), Dr. Shailesh Bahadure (Head, Department of English), Dr. Sawant (Department of Chemistry) were also present on the dais as Guests of Honour. Dr. Ravindra Tirpude, NSS Programme Officer and Mrs. Shinde, Assistant NSS Programme Officer organized this programme.

Mr. Bhusari, in his motivational address inspired the students to take up activities that are in the national interest and create name and fame in their lives. He quoted several examples from the lives of national leaders and social reformers and appealed students to engage themselves in such benchmarking actions. Prof. R. V. Patil praised the NSS unit of the college for conducting such activities and assured every help to them. In his presidential address Shri Gajghate said that the college is famous not only for the sanctity of the place but also for its secular approach that has been maintained since its foundation. The academic growth along with extracurricular and social outreach activities is what is most necessary for every student these days and so is the significance of NSS. He congratulated all the volunteers for their integral efforts. Dr. Tirpude made the introductory remarks while

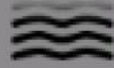

Mrs. Shinde proposed a formal vote of thanks. All the activities were planned and executed by students only.
