As a part of online practical sessions for the students of science faculty of Dr. Ambedkar College, an online access to virtual lab simulations was executed in the Month of January 2021. With an intention to train the teachers for effective usage of this platform called Labster.com Dr. D. N. Begde Assistant Professor Department of Biochemistry and Biotechnology of the college arranged a hands on training session for all the Science faculty members belonging to the following departments:

1. Biochemistry & Biotechnology
2. Zoology
3. Botany
4. Physics
5. Chemistry &
6. Electronics

All the faculty members were given a virtual understanding about the process to access features of the platform. With an example of one simulation related to Thermodynamics on the Labster platform, Dr. Begde explained the process of accessing the simulation as well as gave an insight about how to share the same with the students. All the faculty members found themselves better placed after the training for using the labster platform.

The training was very well received by all the staff members and everyone asserted the implementation of labster to be beneficial for student learning.
