Report of Orientation Program 2021-2022

Department of Biochemistry and Biotechnology of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur has conducted Orientation Program for their newly admitted B.Sc. Semester 1 students. The program was organized by the department through online mode due to the ongoing COVID 19 pandemic. Program was conducted on 27th October 2021 at 2 pm through Google Meet. Mr. Rohan Thaware, the program's coordinator, gave an opening speech to kick off the event. He gave a quick overview of the college as well as the department. Following then, Dr. B. A. Mehere, Principal of the College, addressed the students and wished them well in their future endeavors. Dr. Utpal Dongre, Head of the Department also welcomed the students.

Mr. Rohan Thaware continued with the orientation program introducing student vision and mission of the college. He encouraged students to take up the responsibility of becoming good citizen of nation by following fundamental duties mentioned in the constitution specially develop the scientific temper, humanism and spirit of inquiry and reform. This was followed by introduction of all the teaching and non-teaching members of the department. Mr. Thaware explained the definition of Biotechnology and Biochemistry to the student before explaining them the details of the syllabus they will be studying in their three years in the college.

Students were informed about the facilities they will be using in the department like the departmental core library, different laboratories and staff room. They were also informed about the extracurricular activities conducted by the department in which they can take part to shine among their peers in events like KREEDA conducted by student group of the department called SEEDING LAB. To inspire the student to be good in academics they were shown the laurels their seniors brought to the college and department. They were informed about the toppers from the department and different placement students got during their completion of UG degree. They were also informed about the other courses conducted by our college, important website they should be visiting, some traffic sense and fashion sense tips and SWAYAM and NPTEL courses. Dr. Utpal Dongre, concluded the session with vote of thanks.
