Report

The World Environment Day is an annual celebration which takes place simultaneously around the world on June 5th. The main purpose of celebrating this day is to spread awareness about the conservation and protection of environment.

The ECOGEEK event was organized by American Chemical Society Intl. Student Chapter – Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur. The event was held on 3rd to 5th of June. It was a golden opportunity for the students to explore and come closer to the environment and its belongings. The event was divided into two rounds: Quiz Competition and Virtual Quiz.

Round 1: Quiz Competition

Students participating in first round of competition which was held on Google form, had to attempt 30 questions related to 4 basic topics- Pollutants, Medical Waste, Chemical Waste and Current Affairs related to environment. 1 hour time was given to attempt the quiz. Amongst these 58 participants, top 10 finalists were selected for which the 2nd round was held on Google Meet.

Round 2: Virtual Quiz

Initially, Prof. Dr. Mrs. Deepa Panhekar welcomed everyone and also took turn to encourage participants to be environment friendly & giving importance of environment for living being, she also shared her experiences towards creating better environment to live. After introduction, Round 2 was conducted which consisted of 3 stages. In each round participants were eliminated, elimination was based on their obtained score and respective timing. The session was very interactive and participants also took initiative by sharing their thoughts and experiences for saving environment that leads to cleaner and greener Mother Earth.

The 1st stage was ECO – JUMBLE, MEMORY – TRIVIA and QUICK– FIRE.

The Winners were:

First place was bagged by S. Abinav from Chennai and Rachi Meshram from Nagpur, 1st runner up was Renuka Mahakalkar from Pune and 2nd runner up was Darshan Joshi from Amravati.

The celebration ended with everyone's verbal feedbacks. Feedback link was shared with the participants. Ankita Patel proposed a vote of thanks. The whole event was hosted by Indrakshi Surpatne . Gurjeet Kaur Gill gave information about the purpose of the event. .All the ACS members Anuj Jain, Anisha Rokade, Himanshu Bathav, Himanshu Dhawade, HimaniMeshram, RituPatle, Vrushali Khadatar, Gurjeet Kaur Gill, Indrakshi Surpatne, Prisha Waghmare, Anushka Chinchmalatpure, Ravindra Kharabe and Srushti Wandhare worked hard to make this virtual event a grand success under the guidance of senior ACS members Ms. Trupti Sawant, Swarnima Burande, Sneha Bhurse and Ankita Khonde. All the members conducted practice sessions on regular basis on Google Meet and their hardwork definitely paid off.

The event was attended by Prof. Dr R. C. Sawant, Mr. Parag P. Panse and University students as well. Principal, Dr B A Mehere congratulated the ACS Chapter on successfully organizing the ECO GEEK event.

The surprise game is the most interesting part, it could have had more connecting pictures with chemistry and principles associated with it. So that the participants develop interest towards chemistry and learn some unknown, must know facts.

If you have any suggestions for us, we would be glad to know *

Please keep conducting more such events, it is always a pleasure to participate
