COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION INSPIRATION

Date of Webinar: 03rd December 2021

Competitive Examination Guidance Centre, Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhomi, Nagpur organized a webinar on ‘Competitive Examination Inspiration’ on 03rd December 2021 via zoom platform. The Guest Speakers of the session were Dr Nareshchandra Kathole, Director, Mission IAS and Mr Prashant Bhagyawant, Trainer, Maluka IAS, New Delhi. The main objective of the webinar is to make available a platform, for aspirants of IAS examination and other Civil service examinations, where they can get all the help and guidance they need.

The session was started by the deliverance of welcome address by the officiating principal of the college Dr. Mrs B. A. Mehere. She congratulated the Competitive Examination and Guidance Cell for taking the initiative to organize a talk on such an apt topic. In her address, she emphasized the need for preparation for competitive examinations to equip the students for exploring employment opportunities. She also said such sessions for students are necessary to develop their competency in achieving their career goals.

It was followed by the guest speaker of the function Dr. Nareshchandra Kathole , Director Mission IAS. The guest speaker was introduced to the gathering by Asst. Prof. Parag Panse. The speaker was then invited to deliver the talk. In his motivational address, he guided the students that how one should approach any competitive examination with positive mindset and Mission IAS prepares students for the same. He further added that today, the students have a lot of openings for a prospective career in the government sector, corporate sector, in leading public sector banks and even in the UPSC and MPSC and where they can make a niche for themselves.

Prof. Praveen Khandawe, Technical Director, Mission IAS, was also present for the session. In his address, he gave utmost importance to various factors resulting in the success or failure in any kind of competitive examinations or at the beginning of a professional career and he also suggested that a lot of counseling and guidance is needed to the students before the examinations.

The session was later taken up by Mr. Prashant Bhagyawant, Trainer, Maluka IAS, New Delhi. He chose to emphasize the main components of competitive exams in the country namely the Union Public Service Commission. The speaker threw light on the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) and stressed on the intricacies of it, such as the qualifications, number of attempts, reservations, cut-off marks and the total number of services that comes under it. The resource person also briefly touched upon the various areas where students wanted their questions to be answered. Further, he addressed the students as to how to prepare and study for such exams, He stressed that rigorous training; systematic planning and hard work are the keys to facing the entrance exams. He finally concluded by stating that the exams are tough but not impossible to crack.

Overall, the session was highly informative and interactive. The session was followed by an interactive session with the speakers. The highly motivated students raised a variety of questions to the speaker to which he answered with unwavering enthusiasm. For this session, more than 200 students showed up their participation. The vote of thanks was delivered by Dr Ratnadeep Sawant. Member of CEGC Cell, and the session was compeered by Dr N. Telkapalliwar, Co-ordinator , CEGC Cell. Member of the Cell, Dr. Archana Meshram, Dr. D. H Puttevar, D. N.S. Meshram, and Mr. Manoj Andraskar were also present for the session.
