The Guest Speaker of the virtual platform, Mr. Durvesh Sapate has given an excellent lecture on How to prepare for banking examinations. He has explained brief details and an eligibility criterion has to be maintained before preparing for the banking examinations. He also explains the various types of examinations conducted by the State bank of India, RBI and other banking institutions. He has also given the details of how the student can prepare by using various online tools such as YouTube, from other internet sources, and what kind of books are available for the banking.
