Report

The Competitive Examination Guidance Center (CEGC) of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur, organized a guest lecture on May 5, 2023, on the topic "Navigating the UGC NET and SET Examination Maze: Tips and Strategies for English Literature Aspirants." The lecture aimed to guide and provide tips and strategies for the aspirants of English Literature who are preparing for the UGC NET and SET exams. The guest speaker for the event was Mr. Akash Bure, who is an Assistant Professor at Government Science College, Gadchiroli. Mr. Bure is an alumnus of Dr. Ambedkar College, Nagpur, and holds an M.A. in English, NET JRF, NET (2 times), MH-SET, and GATE. The lecture was conducted on Google Meet at 11.00 AM.

Dr. B.A. Mehere, the Principal of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur, gave the presidential remarks at the beginning of the programme. In her remarks, she emphasized the importance of hard work and dedication in cracking these examinations. She also advised the aspirants to have a positive attitude and to stay motivated throughout their preparation. The principal concluded her presidential address by wishing the aspirants good luck for their future endeavors.

Dr. N. G. Telkapalliwar, the Co-Ordinator of the Competitive Examination Guidance Centre (CEGC), also gave the introductory remarks. In his remarks, Dr. Telkapalliwar provided an overview of the CEGC cell and how it functions. He explained that the CEGC is a dedicated cell that provides guidance and support to students who are preparing for competitive examinations. He also highlighted the various services and facilities offered by the CEGC, including study materials, mock tests, and expert guidance. Dr. Telkapalliwar encouraged the aspirants to make the most of the CEGC services and to work hard towards their goals.

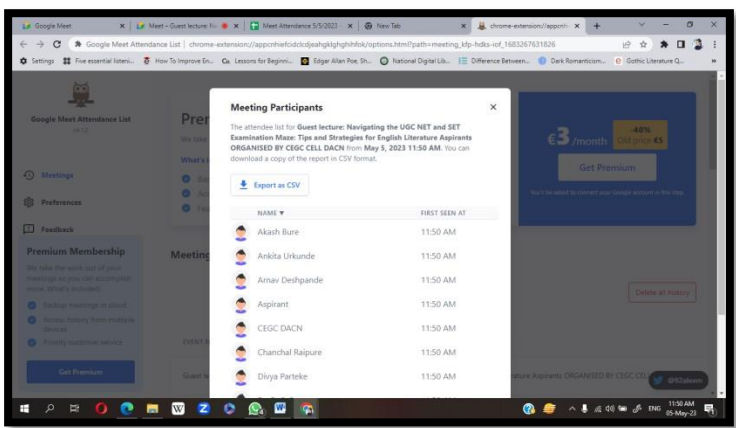

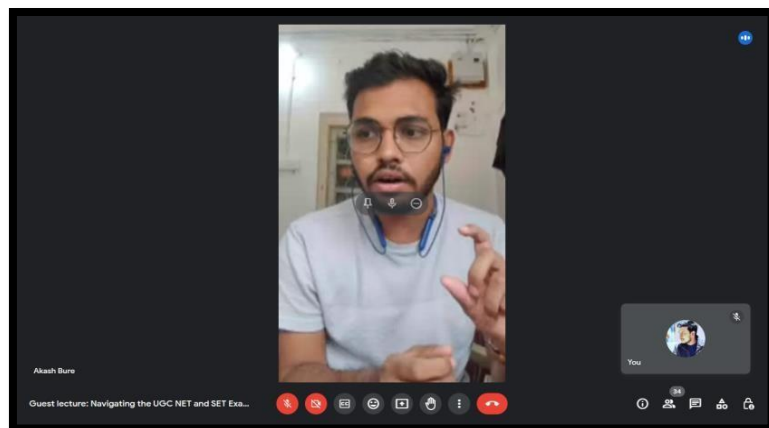

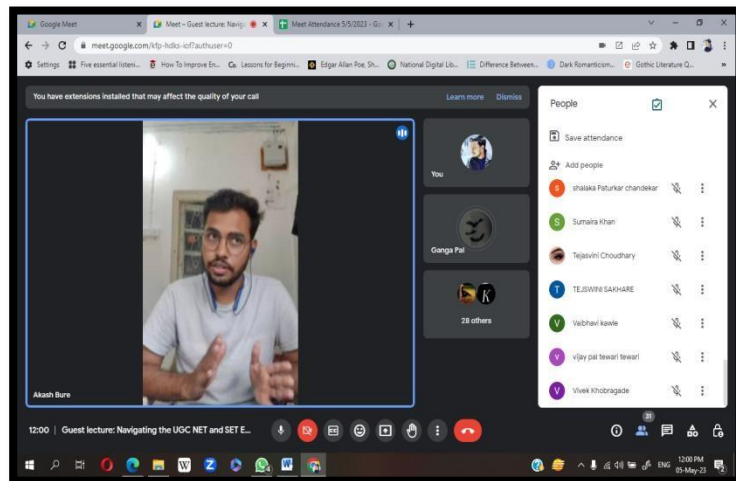

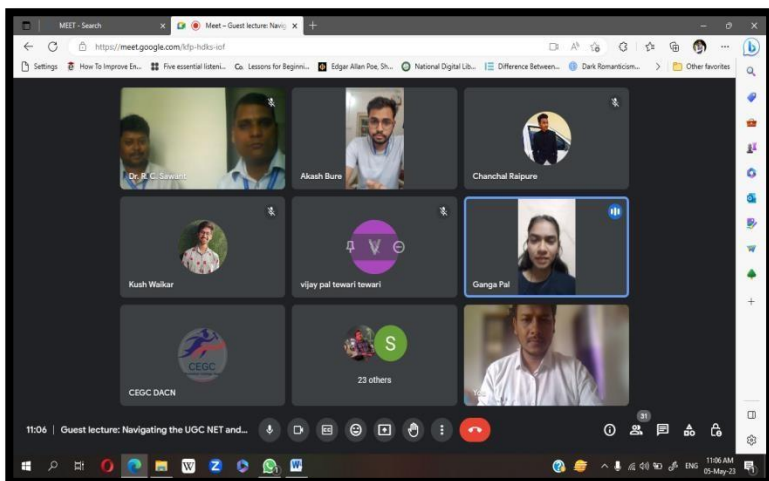

Mr. Akash Bure, guest speaker of the programme, started the lecture by highlighting the importance of having a clear understanding of the syllabus and the exam pattern. He advised the aspirants to study the entire syllabus thoroughly and to focus on the topics that have been asked frequently in previous years. He also suggested that the aspirants should practice previous year question papers and mock tests to get a better understanding of the exam pattern. Mr. Bure then discussed the various sections of the UGC NET and SET English literature examination, including the objective type questions, short answer questions, and essay type questions. He provided tips and strategies for each section and emphasized the importance of time management during the exam.

He also advised the aspirants to read widely and extensively to enhance their knowledge and understanding of the subject. He suggested that they should read literary works from different periods and genres and develop a habit of critical analysis. Mr. Akash Bure also emphasized the importance of revising and practicing regularly. He advised the aspirants to create a study plan and stick to it. He suggested that they should allocate time for revision and practice in their study plan and should revise and practice regularly to avoid last-minute cramming.

Mr. Bure's lecture provided valuable insights and tips on how to navigate the UGC NET and SET examination maze for English Literature aspirants. He highlighted the importance of understanding the exam pattern and syllabus, time management, and proper revision techniques. Mr. Bure also discussed the significance of reading books and journals and recommended some useful resources and study materials for the aspirants.

Overall, the guest lecture was highly informative and beneficial for English Literature aspirants who are preparing for the UGC NET and SET exams. The Competitive Examination Guidance Center (CEGC) of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur, deserves appreciation for organizing such an event that aims to guide and support the students in their preparation for competitive exams.

Mr. Manoj.S. Andraskar was the coordinator of the program, and the Members of the CEGC Cell Dr. D.H. Puttewar, Dr. N. S. Meshram, Dr. R. C. Sawant, and Mr. P. S. Panse were present at the event. Ganga Pal, who is an M.A. English IV Sem student, compered the session, and Sanjhi Waikar, who is an M.A. English II Sem student, gave the vote of thanks at the end of the programme and more than 40 students from the literature and language background showed up their presence in the programme .
