REPORT

To bring awareness about personality, positive thinking, effective communication and presentation skills among the students, a seminar on “Soft Skills and Leadership Development” was organized by the Department of Law, Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur on 13th October 2022. Resource Person for the Seminar was CS Priyanka Shrinivas, a practicing Company Secretary and Soft Skills Trainer from Nagpur.

Dr. H.V. Menon, Head of the Department and The Committee Chair of The Nouveau Corporates Club delivered the welcome address by putting forward how one’s personality can influence the decision making ability and achieving the goals and also opined that exchange of knowledge and coordination are the key attributes of a successful human being.

The resource person, Ms. Priyanka Shrinivas highlighted the importance of communication. She opined that, language is not only the mode of communication but it’s a one of the factors which influences the impact of the message on the receiver. She further described the key attributes of soft skills - Attitude, Body Language and Communication with very good examples and analogies. She opined that, it’s a person’s attitude that influences confidence and knowledge.

Ms. Priyanka Shrinivas had expressed her views in such a manner due to which the students were eleated and promised to imbibe all those tactics to groom their personality.

Ms. Sanika Duragkar, Member of The Nouveau Corporates conducted the seminar and proposed the vote of thanks.

What is Soft Skill ?

- A survey was conducted by an international business school to find out what makes a person ' an achiever ' is it
- Intelligence ?
- Good education ?
