The Department of Law, Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur and The Nouveau Corporates successfully conducted a webinar with Mr. Ankit Srivastava, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Dharmashastra National Law University on "Competition Law: India's Antitrust Watchdog" on 11th April 2022. The webinar was to create awareness on various regulatory concepts, issues revolving the competition law.

The webinar was led by Mr. Ankit Srivastava and moderated by Ms. Anusha Patre, Assistant Professor and the Acting Chair of The Nouveau Corporates. The program initiated with a welcome address by Dr. Pratima Lokhande, Associate Professor and The Vice Chair of The Nouveau Corporates. She threw light on the relevance of competition law in the current scenario. Ms. Anusha Patre introduced the speaker Mr. Ankit Srivastava and further elaborated the format of the webinar to the participants.

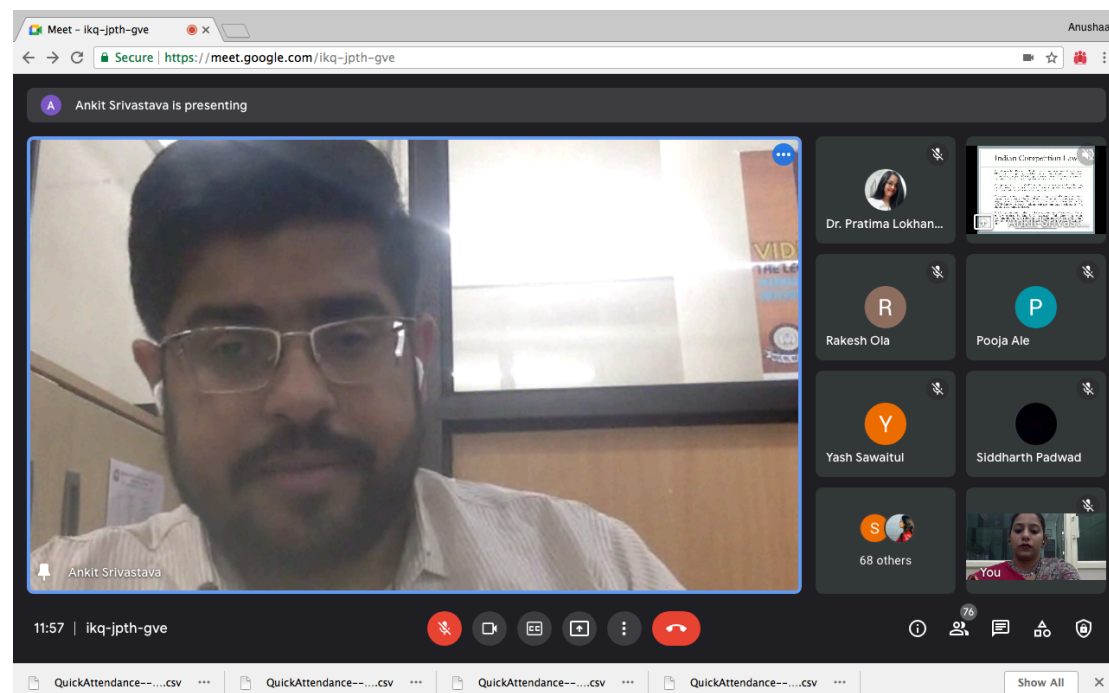

Mr. Ankit Srivastava kick started the session with the basic concept of market. He explained market and the different types of major markets – Monopoly and Oligopoly markets. He then elaborated on perfect competition and imperfect competition with the help of demand, supply and utility of products for the consumers. He covered various related topics such as Anti Trust Laws in USA reflecting upon the Sherman Act of 1890 and Clayton Act of 1914 which was considered as the turning point for the development of Competition Law, Federal Trade Commission Act, EU Competition Law and other related aspects. He threw light upon the Anti- Competitive agreements and its types and the exhaustive regulation of Merger regulations in India.

He shared examples of the Oil Industries and Telecommunication sector to explain in intricate detail about the working of competition in the Indian Market.

By the end of the session, the participants of LL.M and LL.B course gained knowledge on various aspects of competition law and received answers to questions such as the level of competitiveness in the market and the role of cartel in the determination of prices. The session was engaging, and energetic participation was seen in the webinar. Questions were taken up from the participants at the end of the session which were impressively & effectively answered by Mr Ankit Srivastava.

The webinar ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Pratima Lokhande. The participants received great insights on the importance of competition law from the subject matter expert and gained from his knowledge.
