FACULTY OF HUMANITIES

DATE OF THE PROGRAMME: 01-02 APRIL 2024

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 132

URJAA: A Social Harmony Programme was organized by the Faculty of Humanities on 1 & 2nd April 2024. The event was a combination of sports as well as cultural programmes on both days. On the first day, Sports Meet was inaugurated by Dr. Mrs. B. A. Mehre, Principal at Dr. Ambedkar College Sports Academy, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur. This included Cricket and conventional games in Maharashtra such as Lagori and Rassikhech (Tug of War). The objective for holding conventional games was to introduce the youths of new generation about the heritage games of the bygone days. A few matches between teachers and students were also held.

In the cultural programme, singing and dancing competitions were held. Students from all the three years of graduate studies participated in the competitions. It was followed by a debate on 'Sanctions on Social Media is Essential'. All the competitions were ably judged and winners were awarded certificates of appreciation and recognized with trophies for all the events.

In her address to the gathering, Dr. Mrs. B. A. Mehre said that the social harmony programmes are crucial these days as we are becoming a distant society due to intervention of communication platforms. We all are required to spend some quality time with each other forgetting the barriers of caste, creed, religion and gender as this only leads to a coherent society ultimately leading the nation on the path of the progress.

Prize distribution ceremony was held on the second day wherein all the faculty members participated.

The outgoing students of final year expressed their views on the infrastructural facilities and academic support, teachers' contribution to the overall growth of the students on campus.

Dr. Shailesh Bahadure, Faculty-in-Charge congratulated the organizing team and appreciated their efforts for the programme. Ms. Vidya Chaurpagar, Mr. Milind Khedkar, Dr. Ms. Priti Singh, Mr. Manoj Andraskar, Ms. Rohini Meshram, Mr. Sandesh Sahare, Mr. Ankit Banpurkar, Dr. Ms. Anita Tirpude, Mr. Dilip Rathod, Ms. Priya Wathore, Ms. Ruch Jiwane, Mr. Rajendra Tambe Mr. Vipul Dehspande were present for the programme.

The programme was anchored by Ms. Bhagyashri Shdemake. A formal vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Swati Deokar, Department of English.
