Total 75 students attended the guest lecture. Prof. Dr. Mrs. H.V Menon, the Head of the Department of Law and Dr. Pratima Lokhande were present on the dais. The program commenced with the welcome and introduction of the guest speaker Ms. Priyanka Mardikar, the Faculty at Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur.

Ms. Priyanka started the session by explaining the concept of adultery and discussed the relevant legal provisions, its interpretation in colonial times and critically emphasised on its relevance in contemporary times. Adultery has a reasonably recognized meaning in the marital laws and is considered a valid ground for applying for divorce, if either partner breaches the marital vows or commits an act of infidelity. She discussed different landmark cases and explained how the perspective of judiciary changed from time to time. She discussed the historical judgement of Joseph Shine vs. Union of India, in which the Hon'ble Supreme Court struck down Section 497 of the IPC on the grounds that it violated Articles 14, 15 and 21 of the Constitution and held that the law was archaic, arbitrary and paternalistic, and infringed upon a woman's autonomy, dignity, and privacy.

Ms. Priyanka concluded the session by emphasizing on the effects of decriminalisation of adultery in the Indian society and gave the students thought provoking insight into the topic of adultery. This was followed by the question answer session in which all the questions were answered by the speaker to the satisfaction of the students.

The Guest lecture was conducted by the student member of Criminal Law Club, Ms. Stuti Salodkar under the guidance of Dr. Mrs. Vaishali A. Sukhdeve. The Guest lecture on this contemporary topic was arranged by the Criminal Law Club Co-ordinator, Prof. Dr. Sandhya Kalamdhad for the students of law with an intent to update the students about the changing perspective of adultery law in India.
