REPORT ON

SOCIAL AWARENESS AND GENDER SENSITIZATION CAMPAIGN

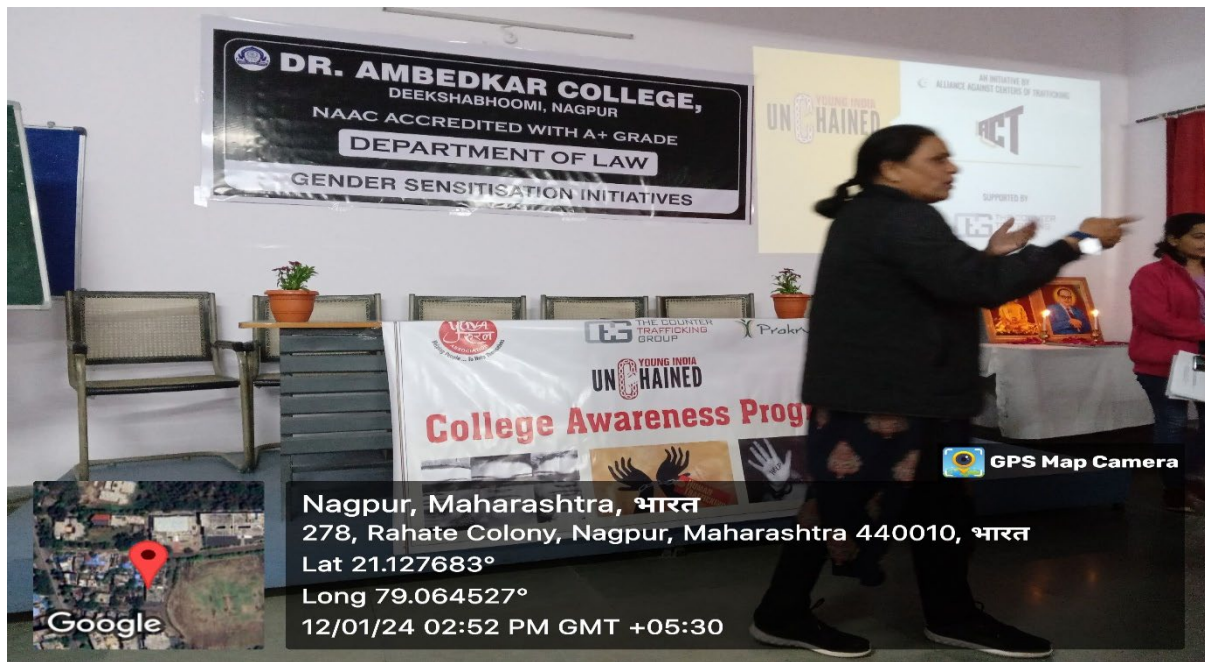

On 12th January 2024 one day social awareness and gender sensitization campaign was conducted in the premises of Dr Ambedkar College of law Deekshabhoomi regarding human trafficking by 'Young India unchained club in association with Prakruthi and Rural Association. Young India unchained NGO works specifically for awareness regarding human trafficking and sexual harassment on women. Youth India Unchained is a collective initiative by the youth and for the youth which aims to create an awareness on the safety issues including sex trafficking and other atrocious, crime against women and children in the city. YIU initiative's vision is to increase of youth participation in efforts to ensure safety and prevent human trafficking.

It aims to increase participation of youth in the criminal justice system by engaging with the city police and reporting of the crime. YIU raise awareness on all safety issues plaguing the youth including sex trafficking. It is aimed at nurturing youth leaders who will work to make the city safer for every girl. With the help of experts and decision makers, the organisation mentor these young changemakers to foster sustainable change.

The organisation also creates a platform for interaction of youth with the police and administration on safety issues and increase youth participation in crime reduction. A strategic approach that will give an opportunity for victims to report, seek care and protection, learning through awareness programs led by the experts on crime prevention. So that no student is trapped and manipulated by the criminals. The vision for YIU is to create a safer and fearless environment in college campuses and build a close-knit network of volunteers who becomes a shield to the vulnerable. Students of various semesters attended the seminar. Students got to know about the crime rates in India and Maharashtra and Nagpur's. A short film was shown as to how this committee helps several girls in case of sexual harassment. Information was given by the speaker sexual harassment and to curb it.
