AND STRATEGIES FOR M.A. ENGLISH STUDENTS

DATE OF THE PROGRAMME: 24 TO 26 APRIL 2024

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 24

A Three-Day training program “NAVIGATING THE N.T.A. NET & SET EXAMINATION MAZE: TIPS AND STRATEGIES FOR M.A. ENGLISH STUDENTS” was organized by Department of English , Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur on 22/04/2024 to 24/04/2024 in Room No 212. The program is designed to prepare students for NET/SET examinations by familiarizing them with the exam pattern and syllabus. It also focuses on providing strategies and tips for effective time management during the examination.

Additionally, the program aims to enhance students' understanding of key topics and concepts in English literature, language, and literary theory. The program was conducted by an alumnus of college Mr. Sanghpriy Meshram.

Dr. Shailesh Bahadure, Head of the department of English highlighted the privilege of hosting Mr. Sanghpriy Meshram, an alumnus of the college, who will be guiding through this intensive training program. He emphasized Mr.Sanghpriy Meshram's expertise, experience, and success in the examination as invaluable resources for the students. He encouraged all the students to actively participate, engage in discussions, ask questions, and make the most out of this opportunity. He expressed confidence that their dedication and commitment to learning would undoubtedly pave the way for their success.

On the first day of the training program, Mr. Sanghpriy Meshram, an alumnus of the college, focused on a detailed discussion of the NET and SET paper syllabus for English literature. He thoroughly explained the paper pattern, including the number of sections, types of questions, and time allocation, ensuring that students understood every aspect of the examination format. Emphasis was placed on the distribution of marks across different sections and the importance of each section in scoring well.

The second day delved into specific topics that students need to cover for the examinations. Key topics such as literary theory and critical approaches, British Literature, literary Criticism, American Literature, major authors, and major awards were highlighted. Different types of questions, including facts-based questions and concept-based questions, were discussed in detail. Strategies for effectively answering each type of question and maximizing marks were shared with the students.

The final day of the program included a doubt session, which helped the students simulate the actual examination environment. Mr. Meshram provided personalized guidance and feedback to each student, addressing their strengths and areas for improvement. Tips for managing time, prioritizing high-weightage topics, and managing temperament were also shared.

The NET and SET training program proved highly beneficial for postgraduate students of the Department of English at Dr. Ambedkar College Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur. The comprehensive coverage of the paper syllabus, paper pattern, distribution of marks, and focused discussions on key topics and question types equipped the students with the necessary knowledge and strategies to excel in the examinations.

The program was compered by Mr. Geet Dudhgawdi, Student from MA Final year (English). On this occasion, Dr Anita Tirpude, Mr. Manoj Andraskar, Mr. Ankit Bnpurkar and Ms. Swati Deokar from the Department of English were also present. The high turnout of students and the overall satisfactory feedback received indicated the immense benefit the students gained from the program.he training program was a great success.
