REPORT

Stat-Fest, an annual extravaganza organized by the Department of Statistics is an event of both academic excellence and vibrant community spirit. Over the course of three days, students immerse themselves in a diverse array of activities designed to foster intellectual curiosity and cultural appreciation. From competitive sports and quiz competitions to themed days honoring traditional and other cultures, Stat-Fest offers an enriching experience for all participants. Through this event, we celebrate the vibrant tapestry of talents and traditions within student community.

It started with seeking blessings of Tathagat Gautama Buddha and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar; followed by the inauguration.
