IMPAIRED STUDENTS

EVENT CONDUCTED UNDER: SANVEDANA CELL FOR DIFFERENTLY ABLED

DATE: MONDAY, 30 SEPTEMBER 2024

ATTENDED BY 27 BENEFICIARIES: SUPPORTED BY 24 VOLUNTEERS S

CHIEF GUEST : SHRI RAJPUT, SENIOR POLICE INSPECTOR,
BAJAJ NAGAR POLICE STATION, NAGPUR

A significant initiative to empower visually impaired students was successfully organized by Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur, on 30-09-2024. The event was conducted through the Sanvedana Cell of the college, in association with the Help the Blind Foundation, Chennai. Cognizant Technologies, Pune, graciously sponsored the laptops, providing essential tools to 27 blind students. IT WAS A PART OF EMET PROGRAMME.

The program aimed to equip these students with the necessary technology to enhance their learning experience and open up new avenues for education and communication. The distribution of laptops marks a crucial step toward bridging the digital divide that blind students often face in their academic pursuits. In today's world, digital literacy is a vital skill, and this initiative ensures that blind students have access to modern technology that enables independent learning, accessible resources, and better academic performance.

The students expressed their heartfelt gratitude to the college and the organizations involved. They acknowledged the pivotal role Dr. Ambedkar College plays in supporting marginalized groups, especially in its efforts to foster inclusivity through its Sanvedana Cell. The Help the Blind Foundation, Chennai, has also been instrumental in providing continued support for visually impaired students across India.

By sponsoring laptops, Cognizant Technologies, Pune, contributed significantly to empowering these students to overcome barriers in education. This gesture will leave a lasting impact on their academic journey and career prospects, ensuring they can better compete in the digital economy. With access to these resources, the students are now more confident in navigating their studies and exploring new career paths.

The success of this program underscores the importance of collaboration between educational institutions, charitable foundations, and corporate sponsors in fostering inclusivity and creating opportunities for all.
