The Department of Sociology, in collaboration with Hindustan Computer Limited (HCL), successfully conducted a Career Guidance Programme for its undergraduate and postgraduate students on 13. 11. 2024. The program aimed to provide students with valuable insights into career opportunities available in the IT sector and equip them with the necessary skills and knowledge to navigate the competitive job market.

Objectives

- To expose students to the diverse career paths available in the IT industry.
- To provide an understanding of the skills and competencies required for success in the IT sector.
- To familiarize students with the recruitment process and interview techniques.
- To offer practical tips on resume building, cover letter writing, and job search strategies.
- To foster networking opportunities between students and industry professionals.

Program Highlights

- Guest Speakers: The program featured insightful presentations by eminent professional from HCL, including Mis. Vaibhavi Dorlikar. She shared her valuable experiences and expertise on topics such as:
 - Introduction to the IT Industry: Overview of the industry, current trends, and future prospects.
 - Career Paths in IT: Exploring various roles such as software development, data science, cybersecurity, IT consulting, and more.
 - Skill Development: Emphasizing the importance of technical skills (programming languages, data analytics, etc.) and soft skills (communication, teamwork, problem-solving).
 - Recruitment Process: Guidance on resume and cover letter preparation, interview techniques, and placement procedures.
- Interactive Sessions: The program included interactive sessions such as Q&A.
- Networking Opportunities: Students had the opportunity to network with HCL professionals, build valuable connections, and gain insights into the company culture.

4. Student Feedback
