The Department of NSS and the Department of Sociology of our college, in collaboration with the Regional Transport Office (RTO), organized an Awareness Program on Road Safety on January 17, 2025 (Friday), at 10:30 AM in Room No.1 (Mini Auditorium). The event was conducted as part of the Road Safety Week initiative.

The Chief Guest for the program was Mr. Kunal Kuthe, Assistant Inspector of Motor Vehicles, RTO, Nagpur City. He addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of road safety measures, adherence to traffic rules, and responsible driving habits. The session was highly informative and interactive, allowing students to clarify doubts and learn about various aspects of traffic regulations and accident prevention. Mr. Parimal, a RTO personnel was also accompanied to Mr. Kunal Kuthe.

A large number of students, along with NSS volunteers, actively participated in the program. The Chief Guest and other speakers highlighted key aspects such as pedestrian safety, the necessity of wearing helmets and seatbelts, avoiding rash driving, and the consequences of violating traffic laws. The session also included a presentation on accident statistics and preventive measures.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by the NSS Programme Officer and Head, Dept of Sociology of the college, Prof. Milindkumar Khelkar who appreciated the efforts of the organizing departments and encouraged students to be vigilant and responsible on the road. The Principal, Dr. (Mrs.) B.A. Mehere, expressed gratitude to the RTO and all participants for making the event successful.

The awareness program was a great success and significantly contributed to spreading knowledge about road safety among students. The mandatory attendance ensured maximum participation, making it an impactful initiative towards promoting safer roads and responsible driving habits.

Prof. Ankit Pusadkar, , Prof. Purvesh Fating and Prof. Kajal Bambal, all the N.S.S. Co- Programme Officers took efforts for the success of programme.
