Report on Har Ghar Tiranga Rally

On the occasion of the 77th Independence Day, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur, organized a vibrant and patriotic event, the 'Har Ghar Tiranga Rally' on 14/08/2024. The rally was held to celebrate India's independence and to foster a sense of national pride among the students, staff, and community members.

The Rally began at 12:00 PM, with an enthusiastic gathering of students, faculty, and staff. The event was graced by the presence of several dignitaries, including the Principal of Dr. Ambedkar College, Dr. B.A. Mehre who delivered an inspiring address emphasizing the importance of Independence Day and the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign. She urged the participants to take pride in the national flag and to reflect on the values of freedom and unity.

The NSS Program Officer, Prof. Milind Khelkar, played a pivotal role in organizing the rally. In his speech, Prof. Khelkar stressed the significance of community engagement and collective effort in preserving the ideals of independence. He encouraged the students to actively participate in national initiatives like 'Har Ghar Tiranga' to spread awareness and promote unity across the country.

The Co-Program Officer, Prof. Ankit Pusadkar, along with other faculty members, including Prof. Purvesh Fating and Prof. Kajal Bambal, also addressed the gathering. They emphasized the role of education in shaping a responsible and patriotic citizenry, urging everyone present to contribute to the nation's progress.

The rally saw the enthusiastic participation of 83 NSS volunteers, teaching and non-teaching staff, who marched together with the Indian flag in hand. The participants marched through the campus, chanting patriotic slogans, and proudly waving the national flag. The rally was accompanied by lively patriotic songs, adding to the spirit of independence.
