Report on Dhamma Chakra Pravartan Din Program

The NSS Department of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur, successfully organized and participated in the volunteering activities for the 'Dhamma Chakra Pravartan Divas' celebrations at Deekshabhoomi on 11th and 12th October 2024. The event commemorated Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's conversion to Buddhism, a pivotal moment in India's social history. The Dhamma Chakra Pravartan Divas program is an annual event that attracts thousands of people from across India and the world. The 2024 edition saw a larger-than-usual turnout due to the significant historical importance of the day. The celebration included various rituals, speeches, and religious discourses.

The role of the NSS volunteers was pivotal in managing logistics, guiding the visitors, assisting in the smooth flow of the program, maintaining discipline, and ensuring a safe and orderly environment. As an integral part of the program, 121 NSS volunteers, along with the NSS faculty and college management, contributed their time and efforts to ensure the smooth conduct of the celebrations.

The event was led by the NSS Program Officer, Prof. Milind Khelkar, and the Co-Program Officer, Prof. Ankit Pusadkar, who oversaw the volunteer coordination and management. The NSS team was further supported by NSS Member, Prof. Purvesh Fating and Prof. Kajal Bambal, who contributed their expertise in the logistical and organizational aspects of the event.

The Principal of the college, Dr. Mrs. B.A. Mehere, was also actively involved in overseeing the preparations and gave valuable guidance to ensure the event's success.
