Date: 13/03/2024

Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur, had the honor of hosting Brigadier V.N. Kulkarni, Deputy Directorate General, NCC, Maharashtra Directorate, and Group Captain Khushal Vyas, Group Commander, NCC, Nagpur Group, on the occasion of the inspection of the NCC 'C' Certificate Examination.

The visit marked an important event in the academic and co-curricular calendar of the college, as the 'C' Certificate Examination is a critical milestone for NCC cadets. It evaluates their overall proficiency, discipline, leadership skills, and commitment to national service.

Brigadier Kulkarni and Group Captain Vyas were welcomed with great enthusiasm and respect by the college authorities, NCC officers, and cadets. The dignitaries were briefed about the arrangements and the overall structure of the examination by the NCC unit of the college.

Key Highlights of the Visit:

1. Inspection of Examination Process:

The dignitaries observed the theoretical and practical examinations conducted for the cadets.

They interacted with the cadets, encouraging them to perform with excellence and emphasizing the importance of the 'C' Certificate in shaping their future careers, especially in the armed forces and other leadership roles.

2. Interaction with College Staff and NCC Officers:

The visiting officials discussed the progress and achievements of the NCC unit in the college.

Suggestions were provided to further enhance training and resources for the cadets.

3. Address to Cadets:

Brigadier Kulkarni motivated the cadets with an inspiring address, emphasizing the values of discipline, patriotism, and leadership instilled by NCC training.

Group Captain Vyas highlighted the opportunities available to NCC cadets and encouraged them to pursue excellence in all fields.

4. Appreciation of Arrangements:

Both officials commended the college administration and the NCC unit for the meticulous planning and smooth conduct of the examination.

The visit concluded with a vote of thanks by the Principal of Dr. Ambedkar College, who expressed gratitude to the distinguished officials for their valuable time and guidance. The event served as a great source of inspiration for the cadets and reinforced the college's commitment to nurturing young leaders for the nation.
