REPORT:

The Women Development Cell of Dr.Ambedkar College organized a felicitation program (felicitation of women workers of college) on March 6th at Kumbhare Hall to celebrate International Women's Day. The event honored the women workers of the college who contribute to maintaining cleanliness, security, and overall upkeep, including cleaning, guarding, and sweeping.

All the women workers including workers giving their services in Deekshabhoomi as well as Department of law were invited to the program. All the dignitaries praised their work.

As a token of appreciation for their hard work and dedication, the WDC members presented gifts and flowers to the women staff. The program was a heartfelt gesture to acknowledge and celebrate their invaluable efforts for the college community.

Principal Dr.Deepa Panhekar graced the occasion as the guest of honor. Dr.Varsha Panbude, Coordinator of the WDC, delivered the introductory speech. She shared that every year the women workers are felicitated to honor and acknowledge their work. Ms.Pooja Kamble hosted the program. Ms.Priyanka Soitkar, member of WDC extended the vote of thanks.

Members of the Women Development Cell Dr. Pratima Lokhande, Dr. Vidhya Chaurpagar, Dr. Preeti Wakudkar were present and contributed for the program to be successfully conducted.
