Moot Courts are vital for law students as they offer practical legal skills, courtroom experience, and opportunities for honing research, oral advocacy and writing abilities. Thus, it is extremely important that they receive proper and adequate guidance in the same. With this thought in mind, The Students MootCourt Association of the Department of Law, Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur organized Workshop on MootCourt on the 19th October 2024 for the students of 1st Semester and final semester of B.A LLB 5Years and LLB 3 Years, under the guidance of Adv. Chetan Dhore, Practicing Advocate Bombay High Court, Nagpur Bench, Nagpur And Adv. Rahul Dhande, Practicing Advocate, Bombay High Court, Nagpur Bench, Nagpur.

Through this workshop the participants were taught the basics of mootting which start right from reading a proposition to drafting a memorial. To make the whole learning process more effective the moot preposition was circulated to the students one week before the actual workshop.

Adv. Rahul Dhande addressed one group of participants, and the other group was guided by Adv. Chetan Dhore. The workshop revolved around the case of Rajesh Sharma vs ABC College based on a moot court proposition involving a student's right to financial aid and transparency of institutional financial records. The central theme examined the conflict between Rajesh Sharma, a student admitted under the EWS (Economically Weaker Sections) quota, and the college's denial of a fee waiver during a financial emergency. This proposition opened discussions on the rights of students in government-aided institutions and the responsibilities of such institutions under the RTI Act.

Adv. Chetan Dhore discussed the problems faced by students while mootting and how to tackle them. He told the importance and significance of moot court competitions, and he encouraged the students to participate in the same. He discussed the techniques of mootting, and he shared his personal experiences of moot court competitions. With respect to moot proposition, Adv. Dhore introduced the legal framework of the RTI Act, explaining its purpose in ensuring transparency in public institutions, including those receiving government aids. He discussed the specific case of Rajesh Sharma, focusing on the denial of access to education due to financial constraints and the subsequent filing of an RTI application. Adv. Dhore underscored the student's right to seek transparency on fund utilization and fee structures in a government-aided institution.

While guiding other group of students, Adv. Rahul Dhande, went into detailed purpose of mootcourt competitions. He clarified the proper format of writing a memorial and highlighted the value of conducting research before drafting. Adv. Rahul Dhande, in his address with regard to given moot proposition, provided insights into the judicial recourse available in such cases, elaborating on Rajesh's writ petition before the High Court. He emphasized the obligation of educational institutions to provide accurate financial information under the RTI Act and their role in ensuring equal opportunities for EWS category students.

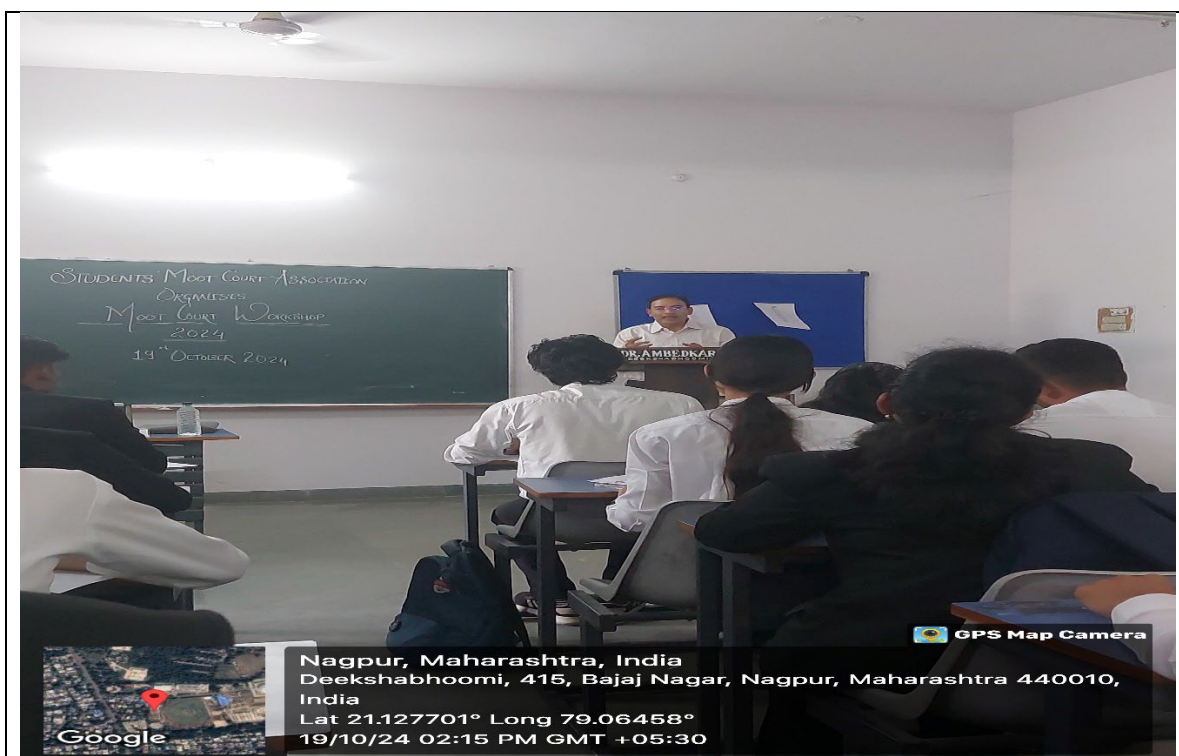

The resource persons were kind enough to explain all the nitty gritty of it. They also explained the method of researching for a moot. The interactive session following the workshop was particularly enriching, with students posing relevant questions. Adv. Dhore and Adv. Dhande also encouraged students to actively utilize the RTI Act to hold institutions accountable for their policies and financial management.

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks by the SMCA Executive Member Sanskruti Pakhide and Shraddha Mishra, who expressed gratitude to the esteemed advocates for shedding light on the drafting, researching and argument skills required in moot courts. The event was well-received by the participants marking a significant step in fostering a deeper understanding of intricacies involved in mooting.

The participants as well as the organizers were indebted for the patient demeanour and teaching style of the speakers. The participants left with a feeling of confidence and eagerness to learn more while the speakers parted with having taught probably the most enthusiastic participants ever.

	MOOT COURT WORKSHOP 2024 DR AMBEDKAR COLLEGE DEEKSHA BHOOMI, NAGPUR DEPARTMENT OF LAW STUDENTS' MOOT COURT ASSOCIATION
Rajesh Sharma, a 19-year-old student from a small village in Uttar Pradesh, was admitted to ABC College, a government-aided institution affiliated with the State University of Uttar Pradesh, under the Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) quota. ABC College receives substantial financial assistance and regulatory oversight from the state government. Rajesh was admitted to the Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.) program in the academic year 2023-2024. After completing his first semester, Rajesh's family faced severe financial hardship due to a medical emergency. Despite being admitted under the EWS quota, Rajesh was unable to pay the tuition fees for the second semester. As a result, the college barred him from attending classes, using library facilities, and appearing for internal exams. Rajesh's parents approached the college authorities, requesting a fee waiver or extension, considering their financial situation. However, the college denied the request, citing its policy of mandatory fee payment for all students, including those admitted under the EWS quota. Feeling aggrieved, Rajesh filed an application under the Right to Information Act, 2005 with ABC College and the State Education Department. He sought details about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The utilization of state funds by the college.</li> <li>The fee structures, including any exemptions or waivers available to students from the EWS category.</li> <li>The specific policies and procedures related to the handling of financial aid requests for students in financial distress.</li> </ul> Response to RTI Request: The college responded to the RTI application but provided limited information, claiming that certain financial details were internal matters of the institution and did not fall under the purview of public disclosure. Rajesh contended that since ABC College is a government-aided institution, it is subject to the transparency obligations under the RTI Act, and
all financial records, particularly those affecting students' rights, should be publicly accessible. Based on the incomplete and unsatisfactory response to his RTI application, Rajesh filed a writ petition before the Supreme Court of India, claiming his several contentions.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

I

In the year 1980, the state of 'Hari Pradesh' framed a scheme to grant 3% reservation in services to the children/grandchildren belonging to the state of Hari Pradesh in direct recruitment to all services/posts i.e., class I to class IV including all all Public Sector Undertakings/Boards/Corporations.

II

The scheme is applicable for sons/grandsons; daughters/granddaughters of freedom fighters. Employed children and married daughters/granddaughters have been excluded. It is pointed out that Mrs. Savita Kumari wants to be benefitted by the reservation but cannot due to the above mentioned provision of exclusion.

III

Mrs. Savita Kumari, who is otherwise applicable for all the benefits is being refrained from doing so as she is married daughter of of Shri Amulya Kumar, who is a freedom fighter and hence not fulfilling the criteria to avail the benefit of the reservation.

IV

The present appeal was filed by Mrs. Savita Kumari challenging the scheme of the government before the Hon'ble High Court.
