The Department of Commerce, Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur organized a seminar on Field Project, Community Engagement Program, and On-the-Job Training on 3rd September 2025. The program aimed to orient students about experiential learning components that form an essential part of their academic curriculum.

Objective of the Seminar:

1. To make students aware of the importance of field-based learning.
2. To explain the role of community engagement in developing social responsibility.
3. To provide clarity on on-the-job training and skill development.
4. To guide students in applying theoretical knowledge to practical situations.

Overview of Seminar:

Seminar was commenced by Dr. D.H.Puttewar HOD of Commerce & Management with the welcome of the resource person Dr. Tushar Choudhari, Chairman Board of Studies Nagpur, RTMNU.

Dr. Deepa Panhekar, Principal, Dr. Ambedkar College addressed the students & emphasized on the importance of adopting experiential learning to enhance student capability and academic excellence. An experienced academic and professional, Dr. Chaudhari delivered a highly informative session. He explained the significance of field projects in bridging the gap between classroom learning and real-world challenges. His talk highlighted the methodology of conducting field studies, ethical and professional considerations, importance of community engagement for holistic development, practical insights into internship and training expectations, skillsets required for employability and industry readiness.

Students found the session motivating and relevant to their future academic and career plans.

The seminar saw enthusiastic participation from students of the Commerce Department. The interactive approach adopted by the resource person encouraged students to ask questions and discuss their doubts regarding project work and internships.

The involvement of the faculty members Dr. D. H. Puttewar, HOD, Dept. of Commerce, Dr. Varsha Panbude, Dr. Akhil Ramteke, Dr. Vaishali Fating, Dr. Ankit Pusadkar, Prof. Purvesh Fating, Prof. Dashrath Vasnik, Prof. Nidhi Nakhale, Prof. Pooja Kamble, Prof. Nanda Yadav, Prof. Sankalp Hadke, Prof. Poonam Vishwakarma, Prof. Abha Giri & Prof. Sarika Dhanokar ensured the smooth conduct of the seminar.

Outcome of the Program:

1. The role of practical exposure in academic learning
2. The importance of community-based projects
3. The relevance of internships in shaping professional careers
4. Gained understanding on how to plan and execute field projects.

Conclusion:

The seminar on Field Project, Community Engagement Program, and On-the-Job Training was a productive learning experience for the students. The Department of Commerce successfully organized a meaningful and informative event that contributed to enhancing students' academic and professional skills.
