The Department of Physics, Dr. Ambedkar College, Nagpur, organized a social outreach visit to Shri Shraddhanand Anathalaya on the occasion of Diwali. The initiative was undertaken by the faculty members and the student committee of the Physics Society with an aim to celebrate the festival of lights by spreading happiness and warmth among the children residing at the institution.

During the visit, the students and staff interacted with the children and celebrated the festival together in a spirit of joy and togetherness. Chocolates were distributed to all the children, and drawing books along with painting materials were gifted to them as token of love and encouragement to nurture their creativity. The children's cheerful responses and bright smiles made the event truly memorable.

The visit served as a meaningful experience for the students, reminding them of the importance of compassion, empathy, and social responsibility. The Department of Physics expressed gratitude to the management of Shri Shraddhanand Anathalaya for their warm welcome and cooperation, and conveyed appreciation to all student volunteers and faculty members who contributed to the success of the event.

Principal of the college, Dr. Deepa Panhekar appreciated the efforts taken by the staff members.

Dr. Aarti Wazalwar, Head of the Department, along with staff members Dr. Amit Bansod, Dr. Namrata Pradnyakar, Dr. Pritee Wakudkar and the entire non-teaching staff along with student volunteers Pranjal Ganer and Yashashree More of the department were prominently present for the event.
