Report on Pledge for Tiranga Program

The Pledge for Tiranga Program was successfully organized by the NSS Department of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur on 12th August 2025 at 11:30 a.m. The program aimed to promote patriotism and encourage students to show respect and commitment towards the national flag and the nation. The program was coordinated by Mr. Ankit Pusadkar and Mr. Purvesh Fating, NSS Programme Officers, who guided the volunteers and ensured the smooth conduct of the event.

Dr. Deepa Panhekar, Principal of the college, presided over the program as the Chairperson. She addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of the Tiranga as a symbol of unity, pride, and national integrity. She motivated the students to actively participate in national initiatives and contribute positively to society.

Dr. Durga Puttewar, Head of the Commerce Department, was also present on the occasion and encouraged the volunteers to uphold the values of patriotism and social responsibility.

During the program, the “Pledge for Tiranga” was administered to the participants, where they collectively pledged to respect and honour the national flag and uphold the ideals of the nation.

A total of 76 NSS volunteers actively participated in the program. Their enthusiastic involvement made the event meaningful and successful. The program concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the chairperson, faculty members, and volunteers for their valuable participation and support.

Overall, the program was conducted successfully and helped instill a sense of national pride and responsibility among the students.
