Report on Parent-Teacher Meeting
Department of Commerce

Date:13.02.2026, Time: 10.00am at Room No 01,
Mini-Auditorium

Coordinator- Dr. Vaishali P. Fating (Associate Professor, Dept.Commerce)

The Commerce Department of Dr. Ambedkar College successfully organized a Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM) on 13th February 2026 at 10:00 AM in the college mini auditorium. The primary objective of the meeting was to foster stronger communication between parents and faculty members, discuss academic developments, and collaboratively support student's academic growth and overall development.

Inaugural Session

The programme commenced with a warm welcome address by the PTM Coordinator, Dr. Vaishali Fating. In her opening remarks, she emphasized the importance of active parental involvement in higher education and highlighted the department's commitment to maintaining transparency and continuous academic dialogue.

Key Discussions

The meeting featured comprehensive discussions on various academic aspects, including:

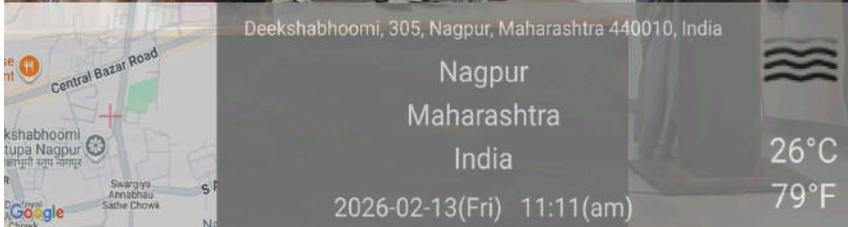

- Implementation of the new curriculum structure
- Updates in academic policies
- Attendance requirements and compliance norms
- Internal assessment system and evaluation methods
- Overall academic performance of students

Faculty members elaborated on the need for consistent attendance and active participation in classroom and co-curricular activities. Parents were informed about evaluation patterns and performance tracking mechanisms, ensuring clarity regarding academic expectations.

Address by the Principal and Head of Department

The Principal, Dr. Deepa Panhekar, addressed the gathering and underscored the vital role of parents in nurturing discipline, responsibility, and holistic development among students. She encouraged parents to maintain regular communication with faculty members to collectively guide students toward academic excellence.

The Head of the Commerce Department, Dr. Durga Putewar, provided detailed insights into recent curriculum modifications and assessment frameworks. She explained how these changes aim to enhance conceptual understanding, skill development, and industry relevance for students.

Felicitation Ceremony

A special segment of the programme was dedicated to recognizing and appreciating students who demonstrated outstanding performance in academics and co-curricular activities. The following students were felicitated for their achievements:

- Bhumija Agrawal
- Era Pathak
- Yukta Parsodkar
- Swastik Sahu
- Arushi Joglekar
- Shakya Ghorpade

Their accomplishments were applauded, serving as motivation for their peers.

Anchoring and Faculty Participation

The programme was efficiently anchored by students Bhumija Agrawal and Yukta Parsodkar, who ensured the smooth conduct of the event.

The meeting witnessed the active involvement of faculty members, including:

Dr. Varsha Panbude, Dr. Akhil Ramteke, Purvesh Fating, Nidhi Nakhale, Pooja Kamble, Nanda Yadav, Dr. Dasharath Wasnik, Dr. Sankalp Hadke, Abha Giri, Poonam Vishwakarma, and Dr. Sarika Dhanokar.

Interactive Session and Conclusion

The PTM concluded with a one-on-one interaction session, allowing parents to discuss individual academic progress, concerns, and suggestions directly with faculty members. This interactive segment strengthened mutual understanding and reinforced the shared responsibility of ensuring students' academic success.

The programme received an encouraging response, marked by enthusiastic participation and positive feedback from parents. The event successfully fulfilled its objective of strengthening academic bonds between parents, faculty, and students, reaffirming the Commerce Department's commitment to academic excellence and holistic development.
