“On the topic “शिक्षण - यश, व्यक्तिमत्त्व आणि समाज परिवर्तनाची गुरुकिल्ली” (Education – The Master Key to Success, Personality, and Social Transformation) a new interactive activity titled ‘Extempore Expression Forum’ was conducted for the first time for the students of the Commerce stream by Dr. D. H. Puttewar with the objective to strengthen their communication & public speaking skills & promote active participation in co-curricular academic activities. Students were given a variety of academic, social & current topics to stimulate and improve spontaneous thinking & speech ability.

Objectives

1. To enhance public speaking & communication skills, develop confidence & reduce stage fear.
2. To improve spontaneous thinking & speech ability.
3. To encourage critical thinking & clarity of expression.
4. To promote active participation in co-curricular academic activities.

Overview of the Program

The program began with a brief introduction by Dr. D. H. Puttewar (HOD, Comm & Mngt.) on the importance of public speaking & communication skills. Students were given a variety of academic, social & current topics. After a brief preparation time, each participant delivered a short speech. The session was interactive, with students participating enthusiastically & encouraged maximum student participation. Dr. D. H. Puttewar guided the students and provided constructive feedback to improve their presentation skills. Faculty members Dr. Vaishali Fating, Associate Professor, Dr. Akhil Ramteke, Asst. Professor, Dr. Ankit Pusadkar, Asst. Professor, Prof. Nidhi Nakhle, Prof. Pooja Kamble, Prof. Sankalp Hadke, Prof. Poonam Vishwakarma, Prof. Abha Giri, Dr. Sarika Dhanokar were present. The activity concluded with a feedback provided by students Ms. Shruti Tiwari, B.Com Sem II (A&T) & Vote of Thanks by Ms. Swati Singh, B.Com Sem II.

Outcomes

1. Students demonstrated improved confidence while speaking before an audience.
2. Participants developed better clarity in organizing & presenting their thoughts.
3. Students were able to express idea more effectively & logically.
4. The activity contributed to the overall personality development of learners.

Conclusion

The Extempore Expression Forum proved to be an effective platform for nurturing communication competence and self-confidence among students. The enthusiastic participation reflected the positive impact of such skill based activities. The department of commerce under the leadership of Dr. D. H. Puttewar, HOD, Dept. of Commerce, will continue to organize similar programs to ensure holistic development and capacity building of students in alignment with quality enhancement initiatives.
