Subject: Implementation of UGC Guidelines on anti-ragging by the institution
(Academic Year 2025-2026)

Respected Sir/Madam,

We take pleasure to inform the concerned authorities that Dr. Ambedkar College, Deeksha Bhoomi, Nagpur is a campus free from any sort of ragging or allied activities. Nevertheless, as per the guidelines, a committee has been constituted in the campus to address any complaints related to ragging. Students in the institution are aware of the anti-ragging policies due to apparent display of posters and placards bearing complaint numbers. The college organises a workshop for the newly admitted students to create awareness and make them vigilant about the anti-ragging policies and corresponding punishments for the offenders. The college has also constituted an anti-ragging squad and all the information regarding the same has been uploaded on the website. All the students have furnished the undertaking through official portal. Undertakings for this academic year have been submitted by the students and their respective parents. CCTV cameras have been installed in the areas of where students frequently gather. Regular interactions are initiated to confirm smooth relations among senior and junior students. Surprise inspections are carried out in the common places for all the students such as canteen and common rooms.

The institution is committed to zero tolerance for ragging and strict cognisance is taken for any such behaviour. Such initiatives and approach has established a harmonious learning atmosphere in the institute. We are determined to continue with the efforts for the upcoming batches to be a ragging free campus.

The detailed reports of the activities conducted this year is attached herewith for your kind information.

Sincerely,

Dr. Deepa Panhekar,
