

REPORT ON AWARENESS TALK

ON

SIGNIFICANCE OF ICC

Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) of Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur organized an informative and engaging Awareness talk on “Significance of ICC” in maintaining a harassment-free environment in the College as a part of a series of programs aimed at promoting importance of the POSH Act (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment Act, 2013).

Prof. (Dr.) Pratima Lokhande, Presiding officer of ICC educated the students of the Department of Science, Arts, Commerce and BCA about the procedures involved in filing complaints related to sexual harassment, discrimination, and other forms of gender-based violence. She has also given the valuable insights into the legal frameworks, institutional responsibilities, and mechanisms for redressal under the POSH Act.

This awareness talk on the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) was a significant step towards sensitizing the students of the Department of Science, Arts, Commerce and BCA regarding gender-related issues, legal protections, and their rights. It was a successful initiative by the ICC to promote safety, and awareness on campus.
